- Step-by-step writing instruction with integrated grammar and vocabulary provides instruction and practice on a variety of rhetorical forms.
- Consistent integrated critical thinking tasks develop learners’ ability to evaluate, analyze, and synthesize information from a wide range of sources.

Pathways: Listening, Speaking, and Critical Thinking

- A clear pathway from formal presentations to student-to-student interactions helps students become active, informed listeners in lectures and conversations.
- Communication skills are taught and practiced through realistic contexts designed to model the academic classroom.
- Presentation skills, including organization, preparation, and delivery techniques, are introduced and practiced in every unit, sharpening learners’ ability to interact in different academic settings.
- Consistent integrated critical thinking tasks develop learners’ ability to evaluate, analyze, and synthesize information from a wide range of sources.

“This series is very methodical and logically organized, while also being motivating. The content and layout of the early pages in each unit make for a stimulating start to that unit, followed up by carefully sequenced and explained steps through the reading, analyzing, responding and writing processes, all based on the topic (which is presented in a very interesting, attractive, non-text-bookish style).”

Matthew Watterson, Hongik University, Korea

Explore a Unit (Level 2, Unit 8)

The Academic Pathway for each unit is clearly labeled for learners. Each unit has three lessons. Lessons A and B develop academic reading skills by focusing on two aspects of the unit theme. The language and content in these sections provide the stimulus for a final writing task in Lesson C.

“Exploring the Theme” sections provide a visual introduction to the unit and encourage critical thinking and discussion.

"I loved the use of graphics, page layout, and relevant, interesting themes; also, the specific targeting of critical thinking. It feels student-friendly and attention getting."
Jennie Farnell, Greenwich Japanese School, Japan

In “Preparing to Read,” learners are introduced to key vocabulary items from the reading passage. Lesson A and B each present and practice 10 target vocabulary items.

Reading A is a single, linear text related to the unit theme. Each reading passage is recorded on the audio program.

Maps and realistic visuals help to develop learner’s visual literacy.

Viewing tasks related to an authentic National Geographic video serve as a content-bridge between Lessons A and B.

Learners use their critical thinking skills to relate video content to information in the previous reading.

"Word Link" and "Word Partners" boxes develop learners' awareness of word structure, collocations, and usage.

Guided pre-reading tasks and strategy tips encourage learners to think critically about what they are going to read.

Critical thinking activities are integrated in every unit, encouraging continuous engagement in developing key academic skills.

Guided Comprehension tasks and reading strategy instruction enable learners to improve their academic literacy and critical thinking skills.

The reading passage in Lesson B expands on the unit theme, using a variety of text types and graphic formats. Authentic charts and graphics from National Geographic support the main text, helping learners comprehend key ideas.

"I think it's a solid series. I love all the Word Link inserts. The reading seemed level-appropriate and the skills were relevant and well chosen." Colin Ward, Lone Star College-North Harris, Texas

The Academic Pathway for each unit is clearly labeled for learners and starts with formal listening and moves to more informal contexts.

“Exploring the Theme” sections provide a visual introduction to the unit and encourage critical thinking and discussion.

“The visual impact is appealing. The combination/balance of personal and academic aspects of the topic of memory in the text would be very helpful for gaining student interest, and encouraging deeper thinking/expanding knowledge of a topic.”
Donna Moore, Hawaii Community College, Hawaii

“Exploring the Theme: Ancient Peoples and Places” section:

The visual impact is appealing. The combination/balance of personal and academic aspects of the topic of memory in the text would be very helpful for gaining student interest, and encouraging deeper thinking/expanding knowledge of a topic.
“Viewing” sections in every unit include two pages of activities based on fascinating video from National Geographic.

Lesson A closes with a full page of speaking activities, including pair and group work to boost learner confidence.

“Engage” sections challenge learners with an end-of-unit presentation project and offer speaking tips for formal and informal group communication, practicing communication strategies in a variety of academic contexts.

“Wonderful content, skills development, academic vocabulary, and related discussion/presentation activities. The layout of the pages and the progression of the activities is great! An instructor could begin the unit from the middle as well as the beginning, which allows for variety when using the book.”

Maria Caratini Prado, Eastfield College, Texas
