

Further Listening

A Listen and match the speakers to their dream jobs.

a owner of small business b designer c reporter d TV star e president of big travel agency

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
1	2	3	4	5

B Listen again. Why do they want these jobs? Complete the sentences.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1 I can help _____. | 4 To make people's _____ come true. |
| 2 It would be _____ to be famous. | 5 To create a new _____. |
| 3 I love _____! | |

Language Focus: Hope/want + to . . .

▶ When people talk about their plans for the future, they sometimes use phrases like these:
I hope to play baseball. I want to fly an airplane.

C Listen to the conversations again. What does each person hope to do? Circle a or b.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1 a write a news story | b own a newspaper |
| 2 a make a lot of money | b make people laugh |
| 3 a have a lot of pets | b own a small business |
| 4 a become rich | b travel around the world |
| 5 a travel around the world. | b change the fashion world |

Talk It Over

Work with a partner.
 Ask your partner about his or her hopes for the future.

What do you want to do in the future?

I hope to travel around the world.