

New Words

Part 1

boycott

They started a boycott when they refused to ride the buses.

demonstration

They held a demonstration against the new law.

discrimination

Martin Luther King, Jr., spoke out against discrimination, because he believed that all people should have equal rights.

endeavor

Cleaning the park is a positive endeavor for the volunteers.

implement

The soccer coach will implement new strategies to help his team win more games.

inherent

The girl's inherent helpfulness shows when she helps her father with yard work.

New Words

Part 1 (continued)

integrate

Martin Luther King, Jr. worked to integrate schools.

position

The mayor has a high position in a town's government.

prejudice

Many people fought to end prejudice.

react

This grandmother reacts to the flowers by smiling.

separate

It is not fun to feel separate from the group.

Part 2

authority

The teacher has the authority to make rules in the classroom.

commitment

My mother made a commitment to volunteer to feed the homeless on weekends.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

declaration

He made a declaration against allowing soda machines in schools.

defensively

They responded defensively during the debate.

humanity

His invention will benefit humanity greatly.

indignation

He showed indignation when he saw the bully take the cupcake away from the little girl.

innocence

The children's happy laughter showed their innocence clearly.

intention

The student practices hard because his intention is to become an excellent musician.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

presume

The judge will presume that this prisoner is innocent until he is proven guilty.

reinforce

The builders can reinforce the floor by adding extra supports.

New Words

Part 1

devote

The girl devotes her free time to helping at the animal shelter.

donate

They donated money to help buy new library books.

envision

He can envision winning first place.

equip

He was equipped with the tools he needed to plant a new garden.

eventually

The seedling will eventually grow into a flower.

incentive

The sale at the store gave customers an incentive to buy more shirts.

inspiration

Artists often find their inspiration in the beauty of nature.

New Words

Part 1 (continued)

nutritious

An apple is a nutritious addition to your lunch.

practical

The practical solution he suggested for the problem was the best way to fix the problem.

supplement

A person who needs more vitamins in his or her diet may take a vitamin supplement.

welfare

He was concerned for the abandoned kitten's welfare, so he adopted it as his own.

Part 2

controversy

Cutting down the trees caused a controversy.

crucial

It is crucial to drink water when you are hiking.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

eliminate

He was eliminated from the spelling contest after he missed a word.

gene

The color of your hair depends on your genes.

global

Food shortage is becoming a global issue.

innovative

The new glass building has an innovative design.

modified

The modified bus has a lift to raise and lower wheelchairs.

organic

Organic fruits and vegetables are grown without chemicals.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

poverty

People who live in poverty may not have enough food to eat.

production

He helped them in the production of cookies for the bake sale.

virus

When you get sick, you may have a virus.

New Words

Part 1

ancestor

She wanted to learn more about her ancestors.

aspect

One aspect of friendship is comforting your friends if they are sad.

assemble

They use a hammer and nails to assemble the birdhouse.

conquest

Emperor Qin's conquest to unify China was successful.

domain

The stage is the singer's domain.

empire

The Romans had an empire that included lands from Europe to Africa.

foundation

Many homes are built on concrete foundations.

New Words

Part 1 (continued)

infrastructure

The infrastructure of the skyscraper was made out of metal beams.

revolt

There are many instances in history of revolts against bad leaders.

unify

The two railway lines unify onto a single track.

Part 2

despair

The team despaired when they saw that the game had one minute left and they were 20 points behind.

expertise

A black belt shows a high level of expertise in karate.

inquiry

The police will hold an inquiry to ask people how the accident happened.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

integrity

The girl showed integrity by returning the wallet she found.

invasion

There was an invasion of ants at the picnic.

legendary

Many people know about the legendary figure of Mu Lan.

pose

The boy poses like a superhero.

precious

Everyone is precious and cannot be replaced.

promote

The colonel will promote the general to a higher rank.

subordinate

Emperor Qin had many subordinates who obeyed him.

New Words

Part 1

analogy

The analogy shows how food is fuel to the body like gas is fuel for a car.

composition

The composition of this rock is made from many elements.

crater

The moon is full of craters.

distinct

The leaf is distinct because it has colors that are very different from the red leaves around it.

erode

The bank of the pond eroded during the recent flood.

geologic

According to geologic data, this rock is very old.

New Words

Part 1 (continued)

simulate

The girl's model simulates what happens during a volcanic eruption.

structural

The wooden frame is the structural support of the house.

survey

They surveyed the land to see if it would make a good location for a house.

terrain

It was a region with many mountains, and it was difficult to hike over the terrain.

transform

A gardener transformed an old truck into a flower planter.

New Words

Part 2

cavern

They explored the cavern.

circumstance

Extreme weather circumstances prevented us from traveling.

constant

The constant rain this week may cause flooding.

estimate

I estimate that there are 1,500 jelly beans in this jar.

formation

The rock formation looked very much like a dinosaur.

navigation

They trusted the captain with the navigation of the ship.

passage

He walked down the passage and reached the main lobby.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

perceive

The men perceive the problem with the bike tire right away.

subterranean

The cave had many subterranean tunnels.

undertake

The man will undertake a difficult climb up the mountain.