

11 Wish you were here?

Glossary

Page 125

- 11.1 dune (n) /dʒuːn/
a hill of sand • On a clear day, you can see Africa from the top of that dune. ❖ die Düne

Reading Pages 126–127

- 11.2 touristification (n) /tuəristɪfɪ'keɪʃn/
the process of making a place suitable for tourists without paying attention to the needs of the locals • Touristification leads to increased housing prices and increased carbon emissions. ❖ die Touristifizierung
- 11.3 overtourism (n) /,əʊvə'tʊərɪzəm/
the state of having too many tourists • Cheap flights have contributed to the phenomenon of overtourism. ❖ der Overtourismus
- 11.4 banner (n) /'bænə(r)/ a piece of cloth with words written on it that is carried by people taking part in a protest • They had hung a huge banner over the street that said 'No new taxes'. ❖ das Spruchbanner
- 11.5 hotspot (n) /'hɒtspɒt/
a place where there is a lot of activity • Gran Canaria has long been a popular hotspot for young tourists. ❖ der Trendbezirk
- 11.6 fed up (adj) /fed ʌp/bored or annoyed, especially by sth that has continued for too long • Fed up with city life, she decided to move to the country. ❖ es satt haben (phr)
- 11.7 rampant (adj) /'ræmpənt/spreading everywhere in a way that you can't control • Crime was rampant in the inner city areas and the police seemed unable to do anything about it. ❖ steil ansteigender/e/es
- 11.8 port city (n) /pɔːt 'sɪti/
a city that has a harbour • Venice is a port city with a huge artistic heritage. ❖ die Hafenstadt
- 11.9 cruise ship (n) /'kruːz ʃɪp/
a large ship that people travel on for pleasure • Most cruise ships are like hotels. They have swimming pools, hotels, clubs and even cinemas. ❖ das Kreuzfahrtschiff
- 11.10 drop (sb) off (phr v) /drɒp ('sʌmbədi) ɒf/take sb to a particular place • The taxi dropped me off outside the main entrance. ❖ (jdn.) absetzen

- 11.11 property (n) /'prɒpəti/land and buildings • Property is still very cheap on the island. ❖ der Grundbesitz
- 11.12 launch (v) /lɔːntʃ/to begin or introduce a new plan, project, etc. • The airline launched a number of new services last month. > launch (n) ❖ einführen
- 11.13 stopover (n) /'stɒp,əʊvə(r)/ a short stay in a place that you make on your way to another place • Our flight to Australia included a stopover in Singapore for a couple of days. ❖ der Zwischenstopp
- 11.14 split (v) /splɪt/divide into two or more parts • Cockcroft and Walton were the first to split the atom in an experiment in 1932. ❖ teilen
- 11.15 spectacular (adj) /spek'tækjələ(r)/ exciting to look at • The view of the gorge was spectacular. ❖ spektakulärer/e/es
- 11.16 scenery (n) /'siːnəri/
the beautiful features of the natural environment • We stopped at the top of the hill and admired the scenery. ❖ die Kulisse, das Landschaftsbild
- 11.17 hit (n) /hɪt/
a thing or person that is very popular and/or successful • Her last film was a major hit. More than a million people saw it on the first weekend. ❖ der Hit
- 11.18 rental (adj) /'rentl/sth you pay to use for a period of time • This is just a rental car I got for my holiday. ❖ Miet-
- 11.19 increase (v) /ɪn'kriːs/make or become larger • The cost of living has increased dramatically in the last 20 years. > increase (n) ❖ steigen
- 11.20 fragile (adj) /'frædʒaɪl/easy to damage, break or hurt • Be careful not to drop that vase. It's very fragile. ❖ zerbrechlicher/e/es
- 11.21 wear and tear (expr) /,weə ən 'teə(r)/ damage to an object that results from ordinary use over a period of time • It is normal for furniture to suffer wear and tear over the years. ❖ die Abnutzung (n), der Verschleiß (n)
- 11.22 deliberate (adj) /dɪ'lɪbərət/planned, not by accident • I didn't make a deliberate decision to lose weight – it just happened! ❖ bewusster/e/es, wohlüberlegter/e/es Ⓜ Opp: accidental

- 11.23 pile (n) /paɪl/
a lot of things thrown together • There was a pile of dirty clothes on the floor. ❖ der Stapel, der Haufen
- 11.24 tourist trap (n) /ˈtʊərɪst ˌtræp/
a crowded place where tourists do or buy things at prices higher than normal • The island has become a tourist trap that's no longer worth visiting. ❖ die Touristenfalle
- 11.25 official (n) /əˈfɪʃəl/
a person that has a position of responsibility in a large organisation • Government officials admitted they were unable to solve the problem. ❖ der Beamte/die Beamtin

LOOK!

The nouns officer and official have a similar meaning, but they're not the same. We use the word officer to refer to somebody who has a rank, such as an army officer, an officer in the air force, the navy or the police force.

→ By the time she was 30, she was already an officer in the French army.

The word officer can also be used as a title to refer to somebody who's in a position of power or has certain duties.

→ The Environmental Health Officer will be meeting with the local council.

The word official refers to anyone who's in a position of responsibility in an organisation or public service. As an adjective it can also mean 'formal'.

→ Government officials said they expected the problem to be solved by tomorrow.

→ Both English and French are recognised as official languages in Canada.

- 11.26 magical (adj) /ˈmædʒɪkl/
extremely pleasant • We spent a magical week on Santorini. > magic (n) ❖ zauberhafter/e/es
- 11.27 peak (adj) /pi:k/
busiest, when a lot of people are doing sth
• All the hotels in the area are full during the peak season. ❖ Haupt-

Vocabulary Page 128

- 11.28 overtake (v) /ˌəʊvəˈteɪk/
come from behind another car and move in front of it • I slowed down as the van was overtaking me. ❖ überholen
- 11.29 brake (v) /breɪk/
make a vehicle go slower or stop • He braked sharply to avoid a pedestrian. > brake (n) ❖ bremsen

- 11.30 steering wheel (n) /ˈstiəriŋ ˌwi:l/a wheel that a driver turns to make their car go left or right • When driving, you should keep both hands on the steering wheel at all times. ❖ das Lenkrad
- 11.31 rush hour (n) /ˈrʌʃ ˌaʊə(r)/
the busy time when streets are crowded in the morning, when a lot of people are going to work, or in the evening, when they are going back home • We left very early in the morning to avoid the rush hour. ❖ die Hauptverkehrszeit
- 11.32 run (v) /rʌn/
travel, cover a route • The airport bus runs every 20 minutes. ❖ fahren
- 11.33 head for (phr v) /hed fə(r)/ go towards • He put on his swimming trunks and headed for the beach. ❖ zu/an etw. gehen
- 11.34 schedule (v) /ˈʃedʒu:l/
arrange for sth to happen at a particular time
• They have scheduled another meeting for tomorrow morning. > schedule (n) ❖ terminieren, anberaumen
- 11.35 lane (n) /leɪn/
a section of a road that a line of cars move along, separated from other sections by painted white lines • In Europe, the slow lane of the highway is on the right. ❖ die Spur
- 11.36 motorway (n) /ˈmɒtəweɪ/
a wide road for fast-moving cars • We decided to take the country road rather than the motorway. ❖ die Autobahn
- 11.37 block (v) /blɒk/prevent movement • Snow sometimes blocks this road in winter. ❖ blockieren, versperren
- 11.38 deck (n) /dek/
a flat area on a ship, built between the sides
• She stood on the deck and waved as the ship approached. ❖ das Deck
- 11.39 yacht (n) /jɒt/
a large sailing boat that you can travel on for pleasure • They sailed to Crete on their private yacht. ❖ die Yacht
- 11.40 sunbathe (v) /ˈsʌnbəɪð/
sit or lie in the sun to make your skin darker
• We spent the whole day on the beach, swimming and sunbathing. ❖ sonnenbaden
- 11.41 rush (v) /rʌʃ/
move or do sth very quickly • As soon as the bell rang, the pupils rushed out of the classroom. ❖ stürmen, stürzen
- 11.42 sights (n pl) /saɪts/places of interest that tourists can visit • We spent three days in Paris, seeing the sights. ❖ die Sehenswürdigkeit
- 11.43 wander (v) /ˈwɒndə(r)/
walk around slowly • I spent the whole morning wandering in the old town. ❖ schlendern

- 11.44 connection (n) /kə'nekʃn/
a plane, bus or train that you take to continue your journey after getting off another plane, bus or train • We arrived in Brussels early enough for our connection to Paris.
> connect (v) ❖ der Anschluss
- 11.45 landing (n) /'lændɪŋ/
the act of piloting a plane onto the runway
• The aircraft made a perfect landing.
> land (v) ❖ die Landung
- 11.46 voyage (n) /'vɔɪdʒ/
journey, especially by sea or into space
• The Titanic sank on its first voyage.
❖ die Schiffsreise
- 11.47 bustling (adj) /'bʌslɪŋ/
busy, full of activity • The open-air market was bustling with life. ❖ belebter/e/es, betriebsamer/e/es
- 11.48 subway (n) /'sʌbweɪ/
(US Eng) underground train system • The subway is the cheapest and fastest way of travelling across town. ❖ die U-Bahn
📌 Br Eng: underground
- 11.49 beneath (prep) /bɪ'ni:θ/
in a lower position than • We saw the boat sink beneath the surface of the sea. ❖ unter 📌 Opp: above
- 11.50 free of charge (expr) /'fri: əv 'tʃɑ:dʒ/
without having to pay • Hotel guests can park here free of charge. ❖ kostenlos (adv)
- 11.51 fascinating (adj) /'fæsəneɪɪŋ/
extremely interesting • The museum houses a fascinating collection of paintings. > fascinate (v), fascination (n) ❖ faszinierender/e/es

Grammar Page 129

- 11.52 self-catering (adj) /,self'keɪtərɪŋ/with cooking facilities, so that you can cook for yourself • Families usually prefer self-catering accommodation. ❖ für Selbstversorger, Selbstversorger-
- 11.53 package tour (n) /'pækɪdʒ ,tuə(r)/
a holiday arranged by a travel agency that includes travel, accommodation and meals at a fixed price • I'd much rather travel on my own than go on a package tour. ❖ die Pauschalreise

Listening Page 130

- 11.54 swap (v) /swɒp/
give sth and take sth else in return • Can we swap seats? I'd like to sit next to Darren.
❖ tauschen

- 11.55 house swapping (n) /'haʊs,swɒpɪŋ/
the act of letting sb stay in your house while you stay in their house for a period of time
• We tried house swapping last year to cut holiday costs. > house swap (n), house swapper (n) ❖ der Haustausch
- 11.56 membership (n) /'membəʃɪp/
the state of belonging to an organisation • You can only enter the club if you have a membership card. > member (n) ❖ die Mitgliedschaft
- 11.57 dull (adj) /dʌl/
not bright or not interesting • My old flat was dull and old-fashioned. > dullness (n) ❖ glanzloser/e/es, langweiliger/e/es

Speaking Page 131

- 11.58 turn (n) /tɜ:n/a period of time when sb speaks without interruption • It was quite a long turn. She spoke for seven minutes. ❖ die Runde, der Beitrag
- 11.59 luxury (adj) /'lʌkjəri/expensive and of very high quality • He bought a luxury car not because he needed it but just to show off. ❖ luxuriöser/e/es, Luxus-
- 11.60 overview (n) /'əʊvəvju:/
a short description that provides only general information but no details • The first chapter of the book provides a general overview of the topic. ❖ der Überblick

Tourism and holidays

cruise ship	overtourism	sunbathe
deck	package tour	tourist trap
hotspot	rental apartment	touristification
house swap /	self-catering	yacht
house swapping	sights
luxury hotel	stopover

Grammar Page 132

- 11.61 stunning (adj) /'stʌnɪŋ/
extremely beautiful • She isn't just beautiful, she's absolutely stunning. ❖ überwältigender/e/es, atemberaubend schöner/e/es
- 11.62 boiling (adj) /'bɔɪlɪŋ/very hot • You can't go out in the boiling sun. Wait until the evening! ❖ kochender/e/es
- 11.63 vary (v) /'veəri/
be different • Prices of the same electronic goods can vary from country to country.
> variety (n), variation (n), various (adj) ❖ variieren

- 11.64 intensity (n) /ɪn'tensəti/
the strength or degree of sth that you can measure • The intensity of the pain increased when he tried to move. > intensify (v), intense (adj) ❖ die Intensität
- 11.65 exceptionally (adv) /ɪk'seɪʃənəli/much more than usual • He's an exceptionally talented writer. I look forward to reading his next book. > exception (n), exceptional (adj) ❖ außergewöhnlich
- 11.66 utterly (adv) /'ʌtəli/completely • The two boys were utterly different, even though they were brothers. ❖ völlig
- 11.67 starving (adj) /'stɑːvɪŋ/extremely hungry • I'm starving because I haven't eaten anything all day. > starve (v) ❖ verhungern (v)
- 11.68 gorgeous (adj) /'ɡɔːdʒəs/
very beautiful or pleasant • He's such a gorgeous young man everybody likes him. ❖ umwerfender/e/es
- 11.69 freezing (adj) /'friːzɪŋ/extremely cold • Put your coat on. It's freezing out there. > freeze (v) ❖ eiskalter/e/es
- 11.70 hardly (adv) /'hɑːdli/
almost not • He spoke so softly I could hardly hear him. ❖ kaum

Positive adjectives

fascinating	spectacular
gorgeous	stunning
magical

Use your English Page 133

- 11.71 stay over (phr v) /steɪ 'əʊvə(r)/
sleep at sb else's house for a night • Why don't you stay over tonight and go back home in the morning? ❖ bei jdm. übernachten
- 11.72 stop over (phr v) /stɒp 'əʊvə(r)/ stay at a place for a short time before continuing your journey • We stopped over in New York for six hours on our way to Vancouver. ❖ zwischenlanden, einen Zwischenstopp machen
- 11.73 run into (phr v) /rʌn 'ɪntə/meet sb you know when you are not expecting to meet them • I ran into my boss at the theatre last night. ❖ jdm. in die Arme laufen, jdm. über den Weg laufen
- 11.74 let (sb) down (phr v) /let ('sʌmbədi) daʊn/disappoint sb by not doing what you agreed to do • My brother had promised to come and look after the children but he let me down. ❖ (jdn.) im Stich lassen
- 11.75 head back (phr v) /hed bæk/go back (usually, to the place where you live or are staying) • After spending the day on the beach, we slowly headed back to the hotel. ❖ zurückkehren

- 11.76 take a trip (expr) /teɪk ə trɪp/go on a trip • We took a trip to the north of Spain to relax a little. ❖ einen Ausflug machen
- 11.77 what the future holds (expr) /wɒt ðə 'fjuːtʃə hæʊldz/what is likely to happen in the future • Be prepared! You don't know what the future holds! ❖ was die Zukunft bringt
- 11.78 give (sb) an idea of (expr) /gɪv ('sʌmbədi) ən aɪ'dɪə əv/tell sb a few things about sth • He gave me an idea of what happened, but he didn't tell me any details. ❖ (jdm.) eine Vorstellung von etw. geben
- 11.79 epic (adj) /'epɪk/happening over a long period and involving a lot of difficulties • One day, I'll tell you the story of my epic journey in South America. ❖ epischer/e/es
- 11.80 kayak (n) /'kaɪæk/
a light canoe with a covering over the top • You can reach the island by boat or kayak. ❖ das Kajak
- 11.81 urge (n) /ɜːdʒ/
a strong wish to do sth • I had a sudden urge to laugh during the lecture, but managed to control myself. > urge (v) ❖ der Drang

Phrasal verbs

drop sb off	let sb down	stop over
head for sth	run into sb	turn up
head back	stay over

Writing Pages 134–135

- 11.82 prompt (n) /prɒmpt/
words that tell you what you should write or talk about • You can start talking when she gives you the prompt. ❖ das Stichwort
- 11.83 suspense (n) /sə'spens/
a feeling of worry or excitement that you get when you are expecting sth to happen • Don't tell me what happens at the end of the story. You'll spoil the suspense! ❖ die Spannung
- 11.84 urgency (n) /'ɜːdʒənsi/
the feeling that sth is very important and must be done immediately • All the people running around increased the sense of urgency that we had right from the start. ❖ die Dringlichkeit
- 11.85 roll (v) /rɒl/
move easily without sudden movements • I sat and watched the waves rolling in to the shore. ❖ wogen
- 11.86 shake (v) /ʃeɪk/

move quickly with short, uncontrollable movements usually because you are afraid or nervous • Ahmed was shaking like a leaf before the surgery. ❖ zittern

- 11.87 sore (adj) /sɔ:(r)/ painful and uncomfortable • My back is sore after all this exercise. ❖ wunder/e/es
- 11.88 relieved (adj) /rɪ'li:vɪd/
happy because sth unpleasant did not happen or ended • She was relieved to hear that her son had arrived safely at his destination.
➢ relieve (v), relief (n) ❖ erleichtert/e/es
- 11.89 foolish (adj) /'fu:lɪʃ/
stupid and embarrassed • He's afraid he would look foolish if he wore those clothes.
➢ fool (v, n) ❖ törichter/e/es
- 11.90 over the moon (expr) /əʊvə ðə mu:n/
very happy and excited • The boys were over the moon when they won the game.
❖ aus dem Häuschen
- 11.91 on top of the world (expr) /ɒn tɒp əv ðə wɜ:lɪd/
very happy and/or proud • When he won the championship, he felt on top of the world.
❖ im siebten Himmel
- 11.92 disbelief (n) /,dɪsbɪ'li:f/
refusal to believe sth • She shook her head in disbelief as he told his story. ❖ der Unglaube
- 11.93 speechless (adj) /'spi:tʃləs/unable to speak because you are angry or shocked • His rude comments left everyone speechless. ❖ sprachloser/e/es
- 11.94 panic-stricken (adj) /'pæɪk,stri:kən/
extremely worried and frightened so that you can't think clearly • Panic-stricken passengers rushed to the exits. ❖ panischer/e/es
- 11.95 beat (v) /bi:t/
make a regular sound or movement
• The drums were beating loudly. ❖ schlagen, trommeln
- 11.96 furiously (adv) /'fjʊəriəsli/with a lot of energy • Her mind worked furiously as she tried to find a solution. ❖ rasend, wild
- 11.97 my heart sinks (expr) /maɪ hɑ:t sɪŋks/
suddenly feel very sad about sth • Tom's heart sank when he found out he had failed the test.
❖ jdm. wird es schwer ums Herz, jdn. verlässt der Mut
- 11.98 my hair stands on end (expr) /maɪ heə stændz ɒn end/
feel very frightened or shocked • The first scene of the horror film made my hair stand on end. ❖ die Haare stehen jdm. zu Berge

Idioms related to feelings

It made my hair stand on end!
My heart sank!
I feel on top of the world!
I'm over the moon!
I jumped for joy.

Live well, study well

Page 136

- 11.99 resolve (v) /rɪ'zɒlv/
find a solution to a problem or difficulty
• The differences between the two countries are not easy to resolve. ➢ resolution (n) ❖ lösen, klären
- 11.100 assertiveness (n) /ə'sɜ:tɪvənəs/
confidence and ability to say what you want or need without being afraid • Too much assertiveness can sometimes be seen as arrogance. ➢ assert (v), assertive (adj) ❖ das Durchsetzungsvermögen
- 11.101 self-centred (adj) /,self'sentəd/
interested only in yourself • He's so self-centred, he doesn't care what anyone else says or does. ❖ ichbezogener/e/es, eigensüchtiger/e/es
- 11.102 sort (sth) out (phr v) /sɔ:t ('sʌmθɪŋ) aʊt/
deal with a problem in a satisfactory way
• This is a problem we need to sort out together. ❖ (etw.) regeln