8 Wellbeing

Glossary

Page 89		8.10	digestion (n) /darˈdʒestʃən/
8.1	wellbeing (n) /ˈwelbiːɪŋ/ general good physical and psychological health ● A good night's rest is essential for your own wellbeing. ❖		the process of breaking down and absorbing food in the body ● Eating too quickly is generally bad for your digestion. ➤ digestive, digestible (adj) ❖
8.2	hay fever (n) /heɪ ˈfiːvə(r)/ the state of being unwell, e.g. sneezing because of pollen from flowers and trees • Erica avoids country walks in springtime as she suffers from hay fever. ❖	8.11	immunity (n) /ɪˈmjuːnəti/ the body's ability to resist infection and illness  • Lack of rest and sleep may lower your immunity to illness. ➤ immune (adj), immunise (v) ❖
8.3	nutritionist (n) /nju'trɪʃənɪst/ a medical expert on healthy eating ● You should take advice from a qualified nutritionist	8.12	rapid (adj) /'ræpɪd/ quick ● The patient is doing well and making a rapid recovery. ➤ rapidity (n), rapidly (adv)  ❖
	rather than go on some weird diet you found on the internet. ➤ nutrition (n), nutritional, nutritious (adj) ❖	8.13	rhythmically (adv) /ˈrɪðmɪkli/ in a regular pattern of movements or sounds • They danced rhythmically to the beat of the
8.4	asthma (n) /ˈæsmə/ a medical problem that affects the breathing system • Although I love cats, I suffer from asthma which affects my breathing, so I can't have them indoors. ➤ asthmatic (adj)	8.14	music. ➤ rhythm (n), rhythmic, rhythmical (adj)  * sleepwalk (v) /'sli:pwɔːk/ walk around while still sleeping • When Tom suddenly woke up in the kitchen, he realised
8.5	plaster (n) /'plɑːstə(r)/ a hard cover around an arm or leg to keep a broken bone in place while it heals ● I had my wrist in plaster when I broke it. ❖	8.15	he'd been sleepwalking. ➤ sleepwalker (n)  lid (n) /lɪd/ an eyelid; the skin that covers the eye when you close it • After working on her laptop all
8.6	sling (n) /slrŋ/ a fabric support tied behind sb's neck and		day, Daisy's lids were closing, so she went to bed
	used to take the weight off a broken arm, wrist, etc. ● She had her broken arm in a sling.  ❖	8.16	<ul> <li>paralysed (adj) /'pærəlaɪzd/</li> <li>unable to move part or all of your body</li> <li>He couldn't walk after the accident because</li> </ul>
8.7	face mask (n) /ˈfeɪs mɑːsk/ a protective face covering worn to prevent catching or spreading disease ● The level of air pollution is so high in some cities that it's advisable to wear a face mask outside. ❖		his back was paralysed. ➤ paralyse (v), paralysis (n) ❖
		8.17	progressively (adv) /prəˈgresɪvli/ continuously step by step ● The snow was becoming progressively heavier as the day passed. ➤ progressive (adj), progress (n, v)  ❖
Rea	ading Pages 90–91	8.18	circadian (adj) /ssːˈkeɪdiən/
8.8	insomnia (n) /ɪnˈsɒmniə/ inability to sleep ● Drinking coffee in the evening could be the reason for your insomnia,		connected to the natural changes in living things in a 24-hour period ● Working night shifts disturbed my circadian rhythms, making it hard to sleep properly. ❖
8.9	so you'd sleep better if you cut down on it.  > insomniac (n) ❖  nap (v) /næp/ take a short sleep ● In some hot countries, it's common to nap for a couple of hours in the afternoon. > nap (n) ❖	8.19	drive (n) /draɪv/ a strong need or wish to do sth ● The accident lessened his drive to succeed at all costs.  > drive (v), driving (adj) ❖

8.20	sleepiness (n) /'sliːpinəs/ a feeling of being very tired or about to sleep  • Unable to concentrate any more due to sleepiness, she took a short nap. ➤ sleepy	8.31	rash (n) /ræʃ/ an area of red spots on sb's skin ● When she touched the caterpillar, she got a rash on her arm. ❖
8.21	(adj), sleepily (adv) ❖  battle (n) /ˈbætl/ an effort to change a bad situation or to achieve sth in a difficult situation ● Sadly, the	8.32	scar (n) /ska:(r)/ a mark left on the skin after a cut has healed  • He has a scar on his leg from an operation he had years ago. ➤ scar (v) ❖
8.22	80-year-old actress lost her battle against cancer. > battle (v) ❖  aid (n) /eɪd/ sth, such as a device, that helps you to do sth  • For me, reading a book is the best aid for a	8.33	stitch (n) /strtʃ/ a piece of thread used to join the two sides of a cut on the skin ● The cut on your finger will need three stitches. ➤ stitch (v) ❖
8.23	good night's sleep. > aid (v) ❖  sleep tracker (n) /sliːp 'trækə(r)/ a device that records your sleep patterns  • He wore a sleep tracker on his wrist to make	8.34	swell (v) /swel/ get bigger or rounder • Her broken toe had swollen up and turned blue. ➤ swelling (n), swollen (adj) ❖
8.24	sure he was getting enough sleep.  inability (n) /,ɪnəˈbɪləti/ the lack of ability • Their inability to see the	8.35	transplant (n) /'trænsplɑːnt/ an operation to replace an organ in sb's body  • The patient is recovering well after her lung transplant. ➤ transplant (v) ❖
8.25	path made the descent risky. * © Opp: ability in-built (adj) /'ɪnbɪlt/	8.36	lean (adj) /liːn/ thin and strong ● Although she eats a lot, she stays lean by walking to work. ❖
	that exists as an integral or natural part of sth  Cats have an in-built ability to see in the  dark.   dark.	8.37	toned (adj) /təʊnd/ well-exercised and strong • I do regular Pilates workouts to stay toned and fit. ➤ tone (n, v)  ❖
VOC 8.26	Vocabulary Page 92  8.26 allergy (n) /ˈælədʒi/ a medical condition that causes a bad physical		severe (adj) /sr'vrə(r)/ causing great pain; very serious ● You must go to the hospital if you have a severe chest infection. > severely (adv), severity (n) ❖
	reaction to certain things ● Her allergy to wheat flour means she has to avoid eating most types of bread. ➤ allergic (adj)	8.39	acute (adj) /əˈkjuːt/ very painful or serious ● He had an acute pain in his ear and went to see the doctor about it.  > acutely (adv) ❖
8.27	diarrhoea (n) /ˌdaɪəˈrɪə/ a condition that causes sb to go to the toilet to empty body waste more often, and in soft liquid form • I had a dreadful attack of diarrhoea after eating meat that was off.	8.40	mild (adj) /maɪld/ not serious or extreme ● l've got a mild case of flu so l'll stay in and rest. ➤ mildly (adv) ❖
8.28	faint (v) /feint/ lose consciousness • It was so hot on the bus that one passenger fainted. •	8.41	<pre>infect (v) /ɪnˈfekt/ spread bacteria or an illness to another person or living thing ● Within days, thousands of people were infected with the virus. ➤ infection (n), infectious (adj) ❖</pre>
8.29	food poisoning (n) /ˈfuːd pɔɪzənɪŋ/ an illness caused by eating food that has dangerous bacteria ● The restaurant closed because so many of its customers suffered	8.42	cure (v) /kjʊə(r)/ make better • Unfortunately, some diseases still can't be cured. ➤ cure (n), curable (adj)  ❖
8.30	from food poisoning on Sunday.  tchy (adj) /'ɪtʃi/ with an uncomfortable feeling, making you want to rub your skin • My legs were covered in itchy spots where I had touched the plant.  had spots where I had touched the plant.	8.43	non-infectious (adj) /'non ɪn'fekʃəs/ (of illness) that cannot be spread easily from one person to another ● Don't worry! Broken bones are non-infectious, so I'll come round to visit you. ❖ © Opp: catching, contagious, infectious

8.44	catching (adj) /ˈkætʃɪŋ/ (of illness) that can be spread easily from one person to another ● The virus was catching	8.55	agony (n) /ˈægəni/ a feeling of intense pain ● He was in agony when he fell and broke a toe. ❖
	and half the students in the school had it.  ➤ catch (v) ❖   Syn:  contagious, infectious	8.56	pandemic (n) /pæn'demɪk/ a disease that spreads around most of the world ● The pandemic known as the Spanish flu began in 1918 and had a devastating effect killing millions around the world.  injection (n) /ɪn'ʤekʃn/ when you are given medicine through a needle When she cut her hand in the garden,
8.45	contagious (adj) /kənˈteɪʤəs/ (of illness) that can be spread easily from one person to another • All medical staff have to wear face masks to avoid catching contagious diseases. ➤ contagion (n) ❖  Syn: infectious, catching	8.57
8.46	immune (adj) /ɪˈmjuːn/ protected against a disease, so you can't catch it ● People who have had certain childhood diseases are then immune to them. > immunity (n) ❖		the doctor gave her an injection to prevent infection. ➤ inject (v) ❖
		8.58	physiotherapist (n) /ˌfɪziəʊˈθerəpɪst/ sb whose job is to treat people who have medical problems with their muscles or bones • The physiotherapist used various machines on my injured back and helped me to heal it.  > physiotherapy (n) ❖
8.47	resistant (adj) /rɪˈzɪstənt/ not easily affected or infected by sth ● A healthy lifestyle can make you more resistant
8.48	to illness. ➤ resistance (n) ❖ vulnerable (adj) /'vʌlnərəbl/	8.59	surgeon (n) /'ssidgn/ a doctor who performs operations ● The surgeon did an excellent job of saving the patient's arm after the accident. ➤ surgery (n)
	easily hurt or infected by sth • Babies are more vulnerable to the illness than older people. ➤ vulnerability (n) ❖
8.49	Opp: invulnerable shiver (v) /'[ɪvə(r)/	8.60	paramedic (n) /pærəˈmedɪk/ sb who is trained to give medical help
	when your body shakes a little because of cold, fear, etc. • Waiting for the bus in the rain, she shivered with cold. ➤ shiver (n)		<ul> <li>The paramedics took the injured passengers and gave them first aid in the ambulance.</li> <li></li> </ul>
8.50	scratch (v) /skrætʃ/	8.61	psychiatrist (n) /sar'karətrrst/ a doctor who treats patients with mental rub your skin using your nails • Don't scratch your rash or you'll make it worse. ➤ scratch (n) ❖	illnesses ● People with depression u get a lot of help from trained psychia ➤ psychiatry (n) ❖
8.51	be better off (expr) /bi: 'betə(r) pf/ be in a better position; be happier, healthier, etc. ● If you still have a fever tomorrow, you'd be better off calling the doctor.	8.62	associate (v) /əˈsəʊsieɪt/ connect ● I will always associate the year 2019 with the start of the pandemic. ➤ association (n) ❖
8.52	fracture (n) /'fræktʃər/ a broken bone ● Laura had a minor fracture in her arm, which healed quickly in a month.  > fracture (v) ❖		Medical treatment ation sling vaccine n stitch transplant
8.53	trauma (n) /'trɔːmə/ a bad injury or experience, or a mental condition caused by shock ● He hasn't	Grammar Page 93
	recovered from the trauma of seeing the accident. ➤ traumatic (adj) ❖	8.63	allergic (adj) /əˈlɜːdʒɪk/
8.54	vaccine (n) /'væksiːn/ a chemical substance that a doctor puts into your blood to protect you from a disease  • The vet gave the kitten a vaccine to protect it against cat flu. ➤ vaccinate (v), vaccination (n)		having an allergy ● I'm allergic to jelly and any food that contains it makes me sick instantly.  ➤ allergy (n) ❖

Listening Page 94

8.64	non-disabled (adj) /'non dɪs'eɪbld/ having no mental or physical disability • Even with one leg, he swims faster than most non-disabled people. ❖
8.65	adaptive (adj) /əˈdæptɪv/ flexible; which can be adapted to suit the situation • The course content is adaptive to suit the needs of different age groups. ➤ adap (v), adaptation (n) ❖
8.66	amputation (n) /ˌæmpjuˈteɪʃn/ the act of surgically cutting off a limb (e.g. arm leg) • His foot had to be amputated to prevent the spread of the infection. ➤ amputate (v), amputee (n) ❖
8.67	impairment (n) /ɪmˈpeəmənt/ a physical or mental condition which prevents part of your body functioning correctly ● Dad has a hearing impairment, so he wears a hearing aid. ➤ impair (v) ❖
8.68	mobility (n) /məʊˈbɪləti/ the ability to move around ● Her mobility improved with physiotherapy and she was able to use her legs again. ➤ mobilise (v), mobile (adj) ❖
8.69	limitation (n) /lɪmɪˈteɪʃn/ sth that prevents you from doing more  • Shortage of time was our main limitation on the project. ➤ limit (v, n) ❖
8.70	cerebral palsy (n) /ˌserəbrəl 'pɔːlzi/ a medical condition that causes the brain to lose control of movements in the arms and legs • Susie was born with cerebral palsy, so she has mobility problems. ❖
8.71	wheelchair (n) /ˈwiːltʃeə(r)/ a chair with wheels used by people who can't walk ● He needed a wheelchair to move around after both his legs were injured. ❖
8.72	able-bodied (adj) /ˌeɪbl 'bɒdid/ not physically disabled ● Both disabled and able-bodied athletes can take part in the Olympic Games. ❖
8.73	ultimate (adj) /'ʌltɪmət/ final ● Her ultimate goal is to win a gold medal for swimming. ❖
Healt	h issues
allergy	food poisoning pandemic

allergy food poisoning pandemic asthma fracture rash blindness hay fever scar cerebral palsy impairment trauma diarrhoea insomnia digestion mobility

Speaking Page 95

8.74 summarise (v) /'sʌməraɪz/
say the general meaning of sth in a few words
On the application form, he had to summarise the reasons why he wanted the job.
> summary (n) ❖

Grammar Page 96

8.75 hop (v) /hpp/
move forward by repeatedly jumping on one leg • He hurt his ankle badly and hopped into the house using his other leg. ➤ hop (n)

Use your English Page 97

8.76	(I'II) believe it when I see it (expr) /(aɪl) br'lizv it wen ar sir it/ (I) doubt if it's likely or true • So you promise you'll never be late again? I'll believe it when I see it! *
8.77	(the) chances are (expr) /(ðə) tʃɑːnsɪz ɑː(r)/it's likely that ● The chances are you'll feel better after a good sleep. ❖
8.78	(a) good chance that (expr) /(ə) guːd tʃɑːns ðæt/ a strong likelihood that • There's a good chance she's forgotten about the meeting, so call her. •
8.79	probability (n) /ˌprɒbəˈbɪləti/ the level of possibility that sth might happen  • I heard a crack when I fell, so there's a strong probability my ankle is broken.  > probable (adj), probably (adv)  •  Syn: likelihood  Opp: improbability
8.80	(I) wouldn't bet on it (expr) /(aɪ) wodnt bet on ɪt/ (I) think it's unlikely or not true • He might get the job, but I wouldn't bet on it! ❖
8.81	take issue with (expr) /teɪk 'ɪʃuː wɪθ/ disagree with ● He took issue with the referee's decision. ❖
8.82	take effect (expr) /teɪk ɪˈfekt/ start to have the intended results • My temperature dropped as the painkillers took effect. ❖
8.83	take (sb's) word for it (expr) /teɪk ('sʌmbədiz)

believe sb • It seems incredible that he was arrested, but I'll take your word for it.

ward far it/

8.84	pay attention to • I	took note of my coach's	Wr	iting	Pages 98–99
8.85	suggestions. *  take (sth) on board (expr) /teɪk ('sʌmθɪŋ) ɒn bɔːd/ accept and consider an idea • He took his friend's advice on board and applied for the		<ul> <li>8.95 address (v) /ə'dres/ deal with; give attention to ● The council are having a meeting to address the issue of publi transport. ❖</li></ul>
8.86	every day to build t	ɪld ∧p/ n ● She went swimming	basic and essential ● Physical e fundamental requirement of a he > fundamentally (adv) ❖ 8.97 outdated (adj) /aut'dertid/		ical exercise is a f a healthy lifestyle.
8.87	catch an illness • 7	/kənˈtrækt (ˈsʌmθɪŋ)/ They wore face masks to he virus. ❖	0.07	old-fashioned ● This old computer software is outdated and needs upgrading.
8.88	diagnose (v) /'daɪa say what illness sb diagnosed me with ➤ diagnosis (n) ❖	has • The doctor has a throat infection.	able-b	Adjectives  able-bodied fundament immune adaptive lean		resistant sufficient toned d ultimate
8.89	was discharged fro	tʃɑːdʒ/ sion for sb to leave ● He om hospital four days after ischarge (n) ❖	allergic catching circadian contagious		mild non-disabled non-infectious outdated
8.90		ge/defeat) • She had to onths when she sustained a			Page 100
8.91	twist (v) /twist/ turn part of the boo wrong way causing	ly (e.g. ankle, wrist) the g injury ● I fell and twisted	8.98 blindness (n) / blaindness lack of ability to see ● He blindness after his accided is restored. >> blind (adj, v		bility to see • He s s after his acciden	suffered temporary nt, but now his sight
8.92	my ankle when I was playing tennis. ➤ twist  (n) ❖  immune system (n) /ɪ'mjuːn sɪstəm/ the body's natural defence system against disease ● If you feel tired all the time, it's a sign you have a weak immune system.  ❖  consultant (n) /kən'sʌltənt/ a medical expert ● He has an appointment to see a consultant about his knee injury.  ➤ consult (v), consultation (n) ❖		8.99	get back sth you had ● After he fainted, he regained consciousness within a few seconds. ❖
8.93			8.100
8.94	diagnosis (n) /ˌdaɪəgˈnəʊsɪs/ the act of identifying what is wrong with sb's health • The doctor's original diagnosis was that I had a bad cold, but it turned out to be a more serious chest infection. ➤ diagnose (v)  ❖		8.101
be better off take effect believe it when I see it take issue with build up take note of (the) chances are (a) good chance take your word for it I wouldn't bet on it		Jobs  consultant physic nutritionist psychi ophthalmologist surged paramedic					