2 It's all in the past

Glossary

2.1 exhibit (n) /ɪɡˈzɪbɪt/
an object of interest in a museum ● Greek and Roman statues are among the most beautiful exhibits in the Louvre Museum. ➢ exhibit (v), exhibition (n) ❖ exponat

2.2 anthropology (n) /ˌænθrəˈpɒlədʒi/
the study of the physical and cultural development of humans ● Jamie is researching the development of early humans for his degree in anthropology. ➢ anthropological (adj), anthropologist (n) ❖ antropologie

2.3 ancestor (n) /ˈænsestə(r)/ a person in a family who lived a long time ago ● My ancestors from my grandfather's family lived in France until the 16th century. ❖ strămoș ✎ Opp: descendant

2.4 influence (v) /ˈɪnfluəns/
make sb agree and do what you want ● The weather can influence our mood and make us feel happy or depressed. ➢ influence (n), influential (adj) ❖ influența

Reading Pages 18–19

2.5 historian (n) /hɪˈstɔːriən/
sb who studies history and is an expert on it ● A famous historian is going to present his book about ancient Troy. ➢ history (n), historic, historical (adj) ❖ istoric

2.6 residence (n) /ˈrezɪdəns/a home ● Buckingham Palace is the residence of the British Royal Family. ➢ resident (n), reside (v), resident, residential (adj) ❖ reședință

2.7 emperor (n) /ˈempərə(r)/ a man who rules an empire ● The Roman emperor Hadrian greatly admired the ancient Greek civilisation. ➢ empire (n), imperial (adj) ❖ împărat

2.8 dynasty (n) /ˈdɪnəsti/
a family of kings and queens who have controlled a country for many years ● The Ming dynasty ruled China for almost three centuries. ❖ dinastie

2.9 inescapable (adj) /ˌɪnɪˈskeɪpəbl/impossible to escape, bound to happen ● The end of the empire was inescapable from the moment the war began. ➢ escape (v, n) ❖ inevitabil

2.10 consequence (n) /ˈkɒnsəkwens/
a result of sth ● If you don't follow the king's orders, you'll have to face the consequences of your actions. ➢ consequently (adj) ❖ consecință

2.11 connect (v) /kəˈnekt/relate; show that things are related ● The development of road networks in Britain was connected with the Roman invasion. ➢ connection (n) ❖ conecta

2.12 take a long view (of) (expr) /teɪk ə lɒŋ vjuː (əv)/ think about the possible future effects of something, not just the immediate result ● If you take a long view, think of your studies as an investment for your future work opportunities. ❖ privi în perspectivă

2.13 complex (adj) /ˈkɒmpleks/complicated; not simple ● Complex electronic equipment is used to find the age of archaeological discoveries. ➢ complexity (n) ❖ complex

2.14 individual (n) /ˌɪndɪˈvɪdʒuəl/
a person ● Each individual has a right to their own opinions. ➢ individual (adj), individuality (n) ❖ individ

2.15 version (n) /ˈvɜːʃn/
a copy of sth that has been changed so it is a little different ● There are two versions of the history book – one for teenagers and one for young children. ❖ versiune

2.16 genome (n) /ˈdʒiːnəʊm/
a set of genes in a living thing or cell ● We are constantly discovering more about the human genome and how our body works. ❖ genom

2.17 evolve (v) /ɪˈvɒlv/
develop ● Medical science has evolved rapidly through the use of technology. ➢ evolution (n), evolutionary (adj) ❖ evolua

2.18 entire (adj) /ɪnˈtaɪə(r)/ whole ● He spent his entire life looking for the lost city of Atlantis. ➢ entirely (adv) ❖ întreg

2.19 requirement (n) /rɪˈkwaɪəmənt/
sth that sb says you must have in order to do sth ● Two years' experience is a minimum requirement for the job. ➢ require (v) ❖ cerință

2.20 field (n) /fiːld/
the specialist area of work or study sb is involved in ● She works in the field of microbiology and studies blood samples. ❖ domeniu

2.21 on the contrary (phr) /ɒn ðə ˈkɒntrəri/used to introduce an opposite point of view ● I expected to enjoy the book. On the contrary, I found the plot rather predictable. ❖ dimpotrivă

2.22 context (n) /ˈkɒntekst/
the circumstances in which sth is said or done ● The book Jane Eyre was written in the context of nineteenth-century England. ❖ context

2.23 cliché (n) /ˈkliːʃeɪ/
a phrase or idea that has been used too often to be interesting ● I'm fed up with hearing the old cliché 'time flies'. ❖ clișeu

2.24 ignore (v) /ɪɡˈnɔː(r)/ not pay attention to sb/sth ● Alex can sometimes make silly comments. Just ignore him. ❖ ignora

2.25 circumstances (n pl) /ˈsɜːkəmstənsɪz/
the conditions and things happening at a particular time and in a particular place ● The company closed due to a series of unfortunate circumstances. ❖ împrejurări

2.26 analyse (v) /ˈænəlaɪz/examine or investigate sth closely to find out more details about it ● Historians are still analysing the probable causes of the end of the Minoan civilisation. ➢ analysis, analyst (n), analytical (adj) ❖ analiza

2.27 question (v) /ˈkwestʃən/be doubtful about the value or truth of sth ● Some historians still question the theories about how the Pyramids of Giza were built. ➢ question (n) ❖ întreba

2.28 perception (n) /pəˈsepʃn/understanding; belief or opinion ● Her perception of learning has changed since she took the course. ➢ perceive (v), perceptive (adj) ❖ percepție

2.29 fake news (n) /ˌfeɪk ˈnjuːz/false information that is presented as news, usually online ● There's so much fake news around on social media that people don't know what to believe. ❖ știri false

2.30 phenomenon (n) /fəˈnɒmɪnən/
a fact or event in nature or society, usually one not fully understood ● Friendship is a complex phenomenon, which is not fully understood. ➢ phenomenal (adj) ❖ fenomen ✎ Plural: phenomena

2.31 regardless of (phr) /rɪˈɡɑːdləs ɒv/
no matter ● Regardless of where we live, we are all affected by the weather. ❖ indiferent de

2.32 specialise (v) /ˈspeʃəlaɪz/
focus on a particular subject and become an expert in it ● After completing his studies in IT, he specialised in gaming development. ➢ specialist (n, adj) ❖ se specializa

2.33 operate (v) /ˈɒpəreɪt/work; function ● The election process operates differently in each country. ➢ operation, operator (n) ❖ opera

2.34 economic (adj) /ˌiːkəˈnɒmɪk/relating to business and money ● The new government promises to improve the country's economic situation. ➢ economy, economist, economics (n), economical (adj) ❖ economic

LOOK!

Notice the difference between the words economic and economical.
The cost of building the royal palace added to the country's economic problems. (= related to the economy)
Natural gas provides an economical source of energy. (= which doesn't waste money)

2.35 foundation (n) /faʊnˈdeɪʃn/basis ● The meeting laid the foundation for peace between the two countries. ❖ fundație

2.36 justify (v) /ˈdʒʌstɪfaɪ/
explain or prove a good reason for ● The politician was asked to justify the amount he had spent on decorating his home. ➢ justification (n) ❖ justifica

2.37 very (adj) /ˈveri/actual ● The elections are taking place at this very moment. ❖ actual

2.38 existence (n) /ɪɡˈzɪstəns/
the state of being real ● The existence of the unknown Amazonian tribe was discovered by an explorer. ➢ exist (v) ❖ existență

2.39 dismiss (v) /dɪsˈmɪs/reject ● In the past, many people dismissed the idea that the Earth is round! ➢ dismissal (n) ❖ refuza

2.40 foolish (adj) /ˈfuːlɪʃ/silly ● It would be foolish to travel in this snowstorm. ➢ fool (n) ❖ nesăbuit

2.41 indulgence (n) /ɪnˈdʌldʒəns/doing or having whatever you like (even if it isn't necessary); letting sb else do or have whatever they like ● At the end of the stressful project, she enjoyed a few days' indulgence at a holiday resort. ➢ indulge (v) ❖ indulgență

2.42 worthless (adj) /ˈwɜːθləs/without value or of no use ● The painting looks like a Picasso, but it's just a worthless copy. ➢ worth (n) ❖ inutil

2.43 fascination (n) /fæsɪ'neɪʃn/
a strong interest in sth ● Her fascination with nature has led her to become an explorer.
➢ fascinate (v), fascinating, fascinated (adj)
❖ fascinație

2.44 vanished (adj) /'vænɪʃd/
which has disappeared or no longer exists
● The Aztec temple ruins are all that remain of a vanished civilisation. ➢ vanish (v)
❖ dispărut

2.45 bunk (n) /bʌŋk/nonsense; false information ● I don't believe this article. It seems like a load of bunk!
➢ debunk (v) ❖ prostie

2.46 misguided (adj) /ˌmɪs'ɡaɪdɪd/
wrong because you're mistaken ● The health advice given on some websites is misguided and could be dangerous. ➢ misguide (v), misguidedly (adv) ❖ incorect

2.47 enhance (v) /ɪn'hɑːns/improve ● The projection of 3D videos at the archaeological site is going to enhance the visitors' experience. ➢ enhancement (n) ❖ amplifica

2.48 interact (v) /ˌɪntər'ækt/communicate with each other, do things together, etc. ● Knowledge of the language is essential if you want to interact with the locals.
➢ interactive (adj), interaction (n)
❖ interacționa

2.49 impact (n) /'ɪmpækt/
having a strong effect on sb/sth ● The consequences of Covid-19 have had an impact on most people's lives. ➢ impact (v) ❖ impact

2.50 conflict (n) /'kɒnflɪkt/serious disagreement or fighting ● Access to natural resources has been a source of conflict between nations for centuries. ➢ conflict (v), conflicting (adj) ❖ conflict

2.51 class (n) /klɑːs/level of importance in a society; category
● Most of the country's wealth belongs to the upper class. ➢ class (v) ❖ statut

2.52 wealth (n) /welθ/riches ● The rich family used their wealth to build a new cultural centre. ➢ wealthy (adj) ❖ avere

2.53 property (n) /'prɒpəti/
a building or buildings and/or land; possessions ● She invested her savings in commercial property. ❖ proprietate

2.54 labour (n) /'leɪbə(r)/
work done by people, often involving physical effort ● Working on a building site involves hard labour. ❖ muncă

2.55 challenge (n) /'tʃæləndʒ/questioning whether sth is valid or legal ● The researchers' findings present a challenge to existing beliefs. ➢ challenge (v), challenging (adj) ❖ provocare

2.56 identical (adj) /aɪ'dentɪkl/exactly the same ● The content of the two websites was identical, so one was clearly copied from the other. ❖ identic

2.57 concern (n) /kən'sɜːn/
a worry ● Fake news is a matter for public concern. ➢ concern (v), concerned (adj) ❖ grijă

2.58 relate to (sb) (phr v) /rɪ'leɪt tə '(sʌmbədi)/ be able to understand and have sympathy with (sb) ● I can relate to his problem because I've been in a similar situation.
❖ se regăsi

Vocabulary   Page 20

2.59 armour (n) /'ɑːmə(r)/ protective metal clothing worn by soldiers in the past ● The brave prince put on his armour to go into battle. ➢ armoured (adj) ❖ armură

2.60 aristocrat (n) /'ærɪstəkræt/
a person of high social class ● Modern aristocrats use titles like 'duke', 'earl' and 'baron'. ➢ aristocratic (adj), aristocracy (n) ❖ aristocrat

2.61 medieval times (n pl) /ˌmedi'iːvl taɪmz/
the Middle Ages; the years from about 1000 to 1450 ● The castle was built during medieval times in 1256. ❖ Evul mediu

2.62 sword (n) /sɔːd/
a weapon like a large heavy knife ● Charlie has a big collection of medieval swords.
❖ sabie

2.63 shield (n) /ʃiːld/
sth used as protection against weapons or damage ● The Roman soldiers marched forward holding up their shields in front of them. ➢ shield (v) ❖ scut

2.64 battlefield (n) /'bætlˌfiːld/
a place where a fight takes place between armies ● Waterloo is a battlefield in Belgium, where Napoleon was defeated. ➢ battle (n, v) ❖ câmp de luptă

2.65 archaeologist (n) /ɑːkɪ'ɒlədʒɪst/
sb who studies the past by examining ruins and objects found in the ground ● The German archaeologist, Heinrich Schliemann, explored the ancient site of Knossos in Crete.
➢ archaeology (n), archaeological (adj)
❖ arheolog

2.66 warrior (n) /ˈwɒrɪə(r)/ a fighter; a soldier ● The warriors fought with swords and shields. ➢ war (n) ❖ luptător

2.67 the Bronze Age (n) /ðə ˈbrɒnz eɪdʒ/
the period in history characterised by the use of the metal bronze to make tools and weapons after the end of the Stone Age over 5,000 years ago ● The museum exhibits include metal cooking pots and plates from the Bronze Age. ❖ Epoca bronzului

2.68 empire (n) /ˈempaɪə(r)/
all the countries under the control of one ruler ● The Roman Empire stretched across most of Europe. ➢ emperor (n), imperial (adj) ❖ imperiu

2.69 revolution (n) /revəˈluːʃən/
a time when there is a violent change of a political system ● The French Revolution took place from 1789 to 1799. ➢ revolt (v), revolutionary (adj) ❖ revoluție

2.70 civil war (n) /ˌsɪvl ˈwɔː(r)/ a time when there is a violent change of a political system ● The last Incan emperor was killed in 1533 by the Spanish after the Incan Civil War. ❖ război civil

2.71 campaign (n) /kamˈpeɪn/
a group of planned activities that have a specific purpose ● The political parties have begun their campaigns to win the election. ❖ campanie

2.72 firearm (n) /ˈfaɪərɑːm/
a gun ● When he joined the army, he learnt to hold a firearm to shoot at a target. ❖ armă de foc

2.73 bow (n) /bəʊ/
a long thin piece of wood or metal bent into a curve with a string joining each end, used to fire arrows ● Robin Hood lifted his bow and shot an arrow at the deer. ❖ arc

2.74 monument (n) /ˈmɒnjʊmənt/
an old building which is an important part of a country's history ● The Tower of London is a famous monument. ❖ monument

2.75 demonstration (n) /demənˈstreɪʃn/
a public gathering of people showing their disapproval or unhappiness about sth ● After the new political measures were announced, the students held a demonstration outside the government offices. ➢ demonstrate (v), demonstrator (n) ❖ demonstrație

2.76 rebellion (n) /rɪˈbeljən/
a violent action by a group of people who want to change their country's ruling system ● After long discussions between the king and the rebels' leader, the rebellion came to an end. ➢ rebel (v), rebel (n), rebellious (adj) ❖ rebeliune

2.77 prehistoric (adj) /ˌpriːhɪˈstɒrɪk/from a time before human history ● Dinosaurs lived on Earth in prehistoric times. ➢ prehistory (n) ❖ preistoric

2.78 contemporary (adj) /kənˈtempərəri/
modern ● Graffiti is a type of contemporary art. ❖ contemporan

2.79 kingdom (n) /ˈkɪŋdəm/
a country or region ruled by a king or queen ● Queen Cleopatra ruled the kingdom of Egypt. ❖ regat

2.80 monarchy (n) /ˈmɒnəki/
a method of government led by a king or queen ● Queen Elizabeth II became the head of the British monarchy in 1952. ➢ monarch (n) ❖ monarhie

2.81 imperial (adj) /ɪmˈpɪəriəl/belonging to or connected with an empire or emperor ● The emperor's family lived in the imperial palace. ➢ empire, emperor, empress (n) ❖ imperial

2.82 presidential (adj) /ˌprezɪˈdenʃl/belonging to or connected with a president ● The US presidential elections are held every four years. ➢ president (n), preside (v) ❖ prezidențial

2.83 violent (adj) /ˈvaɪələnt/happening with a lot of force ● History is full of violent battles between different countries. ➢ violently (adv), violence (n) ❖ violent

2.84 guard (n) /gɑːd/
a person who keeps sb/sth safe from other people or danger ● Guards stand outside the royal palace at all times of day. ➢ guard (v) ❖ gardă

2.85 successor (n) /sʌkˈsesə(r)/ a person who takes the place of another one ● The old emperor's successor was his nine-year-old nephew. ➢ succeed (v) ❖ succesor

2.86 genealogical (adj) /ˌdʒiːniəˈlɒdʒɪkl/related to ancestors and the study of family history ● She researched her family history and made a genealogical chart showing her ancestors. ➢ genealogy (n) ❖ genealogic

2.87 archive (n) /ˈɑːkaɪv/
a store of old documents or records ● Dad found his grandfather's birth certificate in the public archives at the town hall. ➢ archive (v) ❖ arhivă

2.88 descendant (n) /dɪˈsendənt/
a person's children, their children and any future family members related to them ● He claims to be a descendant of Julius Caesar, but nobody takes him seriously! ➢ descend (v) ❖ descendent

2.89 generation (n) /dʒenəˈreɪʃn/
all the people who were born at about the same time ● The younger generation have grown up using technology that their ancestors never imagined possible. ❖ generație

2.90 aristocracy (n) /ˌærɪˈstɒkrəsi/
the rich upper class of society, often with special titles ● Only members of the aristocracy were invited to the royal wedding. ➢ aristocrat (n), aristocratic (adj) ❖ aristocrație

2.91 ruling (adj) /ˈruːlɪŋ/
in charge of a society or country's government ● Members of the ruling class were put in prison after the rebellion. ➢ rule (v), ruler (n) ❖ la putere

2.92 labourer (n) /ˈleɪbərə(r)/
a person whose job involves heavy physical work ● Farm labourers pick the fruit crops in autumn. ➢ labour (n, v) ❖ muncitor

The past: people
ancestor	guard
archaeologist	historian
aristocrat	labourer
descendant	successor
emperor	warrior

Types of rule
aristocracy	imperial
class	kingdom
dynasty	monarchy
empire	presidential

Grammar Page 21

2.93 bust (n) /bʌst/
a statue of a person's head and shoulders ● There were busts of Roman emperors inside the palace entrance. ❖ bust

2.94 gather (v) /ˈɡæðə(r)/
(of people) meet together in a large group ● Groups of young people frequently gather in the park. ➢ gathering (n) ❖ se aduna

2.95 nomadic (adj) /ˈnəʊmædɪk/connected with people who travel from place to place without a fixed home ● We are researching the lifestyle of nomadic tribes in central Africa. ➢ nomad (n) ❖ nomad

2.96 sophisticated (adj) /səˈfɪstɪkeɪtɪd/complicated and well-designed ● Smartphone technology is becoming more and more sophisticated. ❖ sofisticat

2.97 agriculture (n) /ˈæɡrɪkʌltʃə(r)/ farming ● As this country's economy depends on agriculture, the development of farming is important. ➢ agricultural (adj) ❖ agricultură

2.98 civilisation (n) /sɪvəlaɪˈzeɪʃn/organised human society ● The Aztec civilisation developed advanced agricultural techniques. ➢ civilise (v), civilised (adj) ❖ civilizație

2.99 invasion (n) /ɪnˈveɪʒn/
when the army of a country goes to another country in order to take control of it ● The book is about the Spanish invasion of the Americas. ➢ invade (v), invader (n) ❖ invazie

War and disagreement
armour	firearm
battlefield	invasion
bow	rebellion
campaign	revolution
civil war	shield
conflict	sword
demonstration	violent

Listening Page 22

2.100 demolish (v) /dɪˈmɒlɪʃ/
completely destroy a building so that it falls down ● The old houses were demolished when the new road was built through the town. ➢ demolition (n) ❖ demola

2.101 process (n) /ˈprəʊses/
method, action ● Digging for small objects on an archaeological site is a slow process. ➢ process (v) ❖ proces

2.102 access (v) /ˈækses/
have a way into; open a file (e.g. on a computer) ● I can't access the website without a password. ➢ access (n) ❖ accesa

2.103 surround (v) /səˈraʊnd/be all around sb/sth ● The palace is surrounded by a high wall, which is guarded 24/7. ➢ surroundings (n pl) ❖ înconjura

2.104 construct (v) /kənˈstrʌkt/build ● The wall was constructed during the rule of Emperor Hadrian. ➢ construction (v) ❖ construi

2.105 legal (adj) /ˈliːɡəl/allowed by law; connected with the law ● Owning wild animals isn't legal. ➢ legally (adv) ❖ legal ✎ Opp: illegal

2.106 minority (n) /maɪˈnɒrɪti/
the smaller part of a group ● Only a small minority of students eat in the college canteen. ❖ minoritate ✎ Opp: majority

Speaking

2.107 one-to-one (adj) /wʌn tʊ wʌn/between two people only ● She's having a one-to-one session with her yoga teacher.
❖ unu la unu

2.108 podcast (n) /ˈpɒdkɑːst/
a digital audio file that you can download and listen to on a computer or other device
● I listen to podcasts on my headphones when I'm out for a walk. ❖ podcast

2.109 collaboratively (adv) /kəˈlæbərətɪvli/involving working together with other people
● We'll achieve more if we work collaboratively.
➢ collaborate (v), collaboration (n), collaborative (adj) ❖ în colaborare

Grammar

2.110 howl (v) /haʊl/
make a loud sound like a wolf ● They heard the sound of the tornado howling outside.
➢ howl (n), howling (adj) ❖ urla

2.111 anecdote (n) /ˈænɪkdəʊt/
a personal story about an amusing or interesting event ● Mum is forever telling my friends anecdotes about my childhood. It's so embarrassing! ➢ anecdotal (adj) ❖ anecdotă

2.112 still (adj) /stɪl/
not moving ● There's a snake just in front of you. Keep still! ❖ nemișcat

Use your English

2.113 at times (expr) /æt taɪmz/
sometimes ● My sister can be rather annoying at times. ❖ din când în când

2.114 behind the times (expr) /bɪˈhaɪnd ðə taɪmz/old-fashioned in your views or behaviour ● The company has had the same website content for 20 years, so it looks a bit behind the times.
❖ demodat

2.115 for the time being (expr) /fɔː ðə ˌtaɪm ˈbiːɪŋ/
for the moment; temporarily ● I'm staying with my parents for the time being, but I plan to leave home when I get a job. ❖ pentru moment

2.116 (it's) high time (expr) /(ɪts) haɪ ˌtaɪm/used to stress that sth is urgent and sb should do sth soon ● It's high time I got a new laptop. This one is too slow to work on.
❖ (fi) momentul

2.117 (it's) a matter of time (expr) /(ɪts) ə matər əv taɪm/
it will definitely happen, sooner or later
● They're bound to discover where the king was buried. It's only a matter of time.
❖ (este) o chestiune de timp

2.118 take your time (expr) /teɪk jɔː taɪm/don't hurry ● Take your time and check your work carefully before you hand it in.
❖ nu te grăbi

2.119 descend (v) /dɪˈsend/go down ● He quickly descended the stairs to the ground floor. ➢ descent, descendant (n) ❖ coborî

2.120 mass (n) /mæs/
a large amount of sth ● She read a mass of information about Easter Island before writing her conclusions. ❖ mulțime

2.121 major (adj) /ˈmeɪdʒə(r)/ important; serious ● Overcrowding is a major problem in many capital cities. ➢ majority (n) ❖ major ✎ Opp: minor

Expressions with time

at times	high time
behind the times	only a matter of time
for the time being	take your time

Writing

2.122 current (adj) /ˈkʌrənt/happening or existing now ● They elected the current president two years ago.
➢ currently (adv) ❖ prezent

2.123 whereas (conj) /ˌweərˈæz/
while (used to contrast two ideas); on the other hand ● Visiting the museum is free for children, whereas adults need to pay to enter.
❖ pe când

2.124 conversely (adv) /kənˈvɜːsli/
in the opposite way ● Many people speak of 'the good old days' when they talk about the past. Conversely, I see history as a story of progress. ➢ converse (adj) ❖ din contră

2.125 tuition (n) /tjuˈɪʃn/
teaching sth, especially to one person or a small group ● He had some extra tuition before his final exams. ❖ lecție

2.126 install (v) /ɪnˈstɔːl/put equipment somewhere and connect it so that it is ready to be used ● The new sound system was installed in the theatre last week.
➢ installation (n) ❖ instala

2.127 subscribe (to) (v) /səbˈskraɪb (tʊ)/ pay money to receive a product or service on a regular basis; support sth ● Hundreds of people have subscribed to her YouTube channel. ➢ subscription, subscriber (n) ❖ se abona (la)

2.128 vital (adj) /ˈvaɪtəl/extremely important or necessary ● It is vital to show your passport when you cross the border. ❖ vital

2.129 resource (n) /rɪˈsɔːs/
sth that a person, organisation or country has and can use ● They managed to build homes using the basic resources they had, like stone and wood. ❖ resursă

2.130 funding (n) /ˈfʌndɪŋ/
money to pay for a particular project, etc. ● The local government has run out of funding for children's play areas. ➢ fund (n, v) ❖ finanțare

2.131 sufficient (adj) /səˈfɪʃənt/enough ● Have you got a sufficient amount of time to complete the study? ➢ sufficiently (adv), suffice (v), sufficiency (n) ❖ suficient ✎ Opp: insufficient

2.132 primarily (adv) /praɪˈmerəli/mainly ● The advertisement is primarily aimed at families with young children. ➢ primary (adj) ❖ în principal

2.133 alternative (adj) /ɔːlˈtɜːnətɪv/
sth you can choose to do, use, etc. instead of sth else ● You can borrow books from the library or download e-books as an alternative solution. ➢ alternative (n) ❖ alternativ

2.134 invest (in) (v) /ɪnˈvest (ɪn)/ put money, effort or time into sth to make a profit or gain an advantage ● I decided to invest my savings in property and bought two apartments in the city. ➢ investment (n) ❖ investi (în)

2.135 accurate (adj) /ˈækjərət/
without mistakes ● This is an accurate news report of the demonstration as it really happened. ➢ accurately (adv), accuracy (n) ❖ precis ✎ Opp: inaccurate

2.136 benefit (v) /ˈbenɪfɪt/
be helped by sth; help sb ● The college students would benefit from new sports facilities. ➢ benefit (n), beneficial (adj) ❖ beneficia

2.137 on balance (phr) /ɒn ˈbæləns/
after considering all options or points of view ● On balance, I prefer face-to-face lessons to online ones. ❖ una peste alta

2.138 publicity (n) /pʌbˈlɪsəti/attention from the public ● The band are on tour to get publicity for their new album. ❖ publicitate

2.139 highlight (v) /ˈhaɪlaɪt/make noticeable ● In his talk, the archaeologist highlights the importance of his latest find. ➢ highlight (n) ❖ evidenția

2.140 in favour of (phr) /ɪn ˈfeɪvə(r) əv/in support of; for sth (not against it) ● Are you in favour of spending money on museums? ❖ în favoarea ✎ Opp: against

Video Page 28

2.141 ruins (n pl) /ˈruːɪnz/
parts of damaged buildings, often very old ● Many tourists come to Peru to see the famous ancient ruins of Machu Picchu. ➢ ruin (v) ❖ ruine

2.142 inhabit (v) /ɪnˈhæbɪt/live in a particular place ● Penguins inhabit Antarctica, whereas it's too cold for humans to survive long there. ➢ inhabitant (n) ❖ locui

2.143 astronomy (n) /əˈstrɒnəmi/
the scientific study of planets, stars, and space ● I developed an interest in astronomy when I got my first telescope. ➢ astronomer (n) ❖ astronomie

2.144 literacy (n) /ˈlɪtərəsi/
the ability to read and write ● Literacy levels are low in poorer countries where there is little education. ➢ literate (adj) ❖ alfabetizare ✎ Opp: illiteracy

2.145 divide (v) /dɪˈvaɪd/share ● We divided the work fairly between us to finish the project more quickly. ➢ division (n) ❖ diviza

2.146 constellation (n) /ˌkɒnstəˈleɪʃn/
a group of stars ● In the starry night sky, we observed some constellations. ❖ constelație

2.147 goods (n pl) /gʊdz/things made to be sold ● Bags, rugs and other handmade goods are sold in the market. ❖ bunuri

2.148 clay (n) /kleɪ/
a type of earth used to make pots ● She shaped the vase from soft clay. ➢ clay (adj) ❖ argilă

2.149 tablet (n) /ˈtæblət/
a thin flat piece of stone ● The archaeologist found the writing carved on a large stone tablet. ❖ tăbliță

2.150 fertile (adj) /ˈfɜːtaɪl/suitable for growing plants on ● Several fruit farms are located in the fertile valley.
➢ fertilise (v), fertiliser, fertilisation, fertility (n)
❖ fertil ✎ Opp: infertile

2.151 innovation (n) /ɪnəˈveɪʃn/
a new idea or thing being used for the first time
● This app is an amazing innovation that uses AI to enhance photos. ➢ innovative (adj)
❖ inovație

2.152 settlement (n) /ˈsetlmənt/
a place where people come to live and build their homes ● Archaeologists identified the building as part of an ancient settlement.
➢ settle (v), settler (n) ❖ așezare

2.153 soil (n) /sɔɪl/
the earth which plants and trees grow in ● I bought a bag of soil to plant some strawberries. ❖ sol

2.154 thrive (v) /ˈθraɪv/grow; do well ● Olive trees thrive in a warm dry climate. ➢ thriving (adj) ❖ prospera

2.155 plain (n) /pleɪn/
a large flat area of land ● The city lies on a wide plain surrounded by hills. ❖ câmpie

2.156 stable (adj) /ˈsteɪbl/unlikely to change or fall ● The country's economy is becoming more stable and new businesses are starting up. ➢ stability (n)
❖ stabil ✎ Opp: unstable

2.157 supply (n) /səˈplaɪ/
an amount of sth that is available for use
● Remember to take a good supply of water with you when you go hiking. ➢ supply (v)
❖ rezervă

2.158 fall (n) /fɔːl/
the fact of losing power or being defeated
● What caused the fall of the British Empire?
❖ cădere ✎ Syn: downfall

The past: places and objects

artefact	residence
clay	ruins
goods	settlement
exhibit	soil
innovation	supply
monument	tablet
plain
property	