THINK AND DISCUSS

1 What do you think these people are seeing or experiencing?
2 How do you think a virtual reality experience is different from usual viewing?
3 What would you like to view with virtual reality glasses?

Look at the photo and read the information. Then discuss the questions.

1. What type of new technology is shown in the photo? How is it useful?
2. What are some other new workplace technologies, and how are they changing the work world?
3. Look at The Future of Work 2020. Rank the drivers from strongest to weakest, in your opinion.
4. Which key skills do you think are most relevant for each driver?

MEANING FROM CONTEXT

A 🎧 2.2 Read and listen to the article. Notice each word or phrase in blue and think about its meaning.

GLOBAL EMPLOYMENT TRENDS

Globalization is producing enormous changes in labor markets, changes that are creating both winners and losers in the workplace. Here are two areas of change that pertain to both employers and employees.

- Advanced technologies, a key component of globalization, are more widespread than ever before. New developments in technology will continue to facilitate tasks in business sectors such as architecture and engineering. It is not, however, a promising trend for office workers or the administrative sector, where jobs will inevitably be lost.
- The globalization of communication means more opportunities to learn via remote sources. Accessing information from global sources can increase a person's career competence and earning power. Companies who value their employees and hope to retain them in today's competitive global environment must support and fund learning opportunities for ambitious and motivated workers—or risk losing them!

B Match each word or phrase from exercise A with its definition.

1. _____ competence (n)
2. _____ component (n)
3. _____ facilitate (v)
4. _____ inevitably (adv)
5. _____ labor (n)
6. _____ pertain to (v phr)
7. _____ promising (adj)
8. _____ retain (v)
9. _____ sector (n)
10. _____ widespread (adj)

a. area of a society or economy
b. to relate, belong, or apply to
c. showing signs of future success
d. to keep
e. work or employment
f. the ability to do something well
g. certainly, necessarily
h. to make something easier or more efficient
i. existing or happening over a large area
j. a part of a larger whole

C Work in a small group. Look at the information in exercise A. Discuss the questions.

CRITICAL THINKING: ANALYZING

1. For which sectors is the future promising? For which is globalization having a negative effect? Are any of the predictions surprising? Explain.
2. Choose four of the sectors and discuss how globalization might be expanding or shrinking the labor force in each.

VOCABULARY SKILL Using Collocations

Collocations are combinations of words that are frequently used together. Two common patterns are:

Noun + Noun (The first noun acts like an adjective.)

labor markets	business sector	earning power

Adjective + Noun

private sector	advanced technologies	remote control

D Complete each global career tip with the correct collocation.

1. Just knowing your _____ isn't enough these days. Learn a second one.
   a. natural language   b. native language   c. national language
2. Do your own Internet research to keep up with _____ in your chosen field.
   a. major trends   b. upper trends   c. considerable trends
3. Take a trip overseas during _____ to explore employment options.
   a. spring break   b. spring pause   c. spring intermission
4. Don't forget that companies often fill their _____ with local talent.
   a. superior positions   b. senior positions   c. elder positions
5. If you hope to work in the _____, do a leadership training program.
   a. managing sector   b. manager sector   c. management sector
6. If you have an _____, look for a position abroad.
   a. adventurous spirit   b. adventurous energy   c. adventurous body
7. Develop the ability to adapt to other cultures, as it's part of a global career _____.
   a. skill series   b. skill collection   c. skill set
8. Join online discussions related to your _____ of expertise or interest.
   a. specific region   b. specific field   c. specific environment

E Work in a group. Discuss the career tips above. Then use the collocations to make your own career tips.

CRITICAL THINKING: APPLYING

> Don't worry if you don't speak English as well as your native language. A lot of successful international businesspeople are still perfecting their English!

A Listening A Lecture about Succeeding in Business

BEFORE LISTENING

A Work in a small group. Discuss these questions.

1. What does it take to be successful in today's globalized business world?

2. You are going to hear a lecture about four skills, called "competences", needed to succeed in business today. Look at the skills and discuss what you think each means.

- personal competence
- social competence
- business competence
- cultural competence

WHILE LISTENING

> LISTENING SKILL Listening for Advantages
>
> When introducing new ideas, speakers often point out the advantages of those ideas. Listen for the following ways speakers express advantages.
> - a clear statement of the advantage
>   - The advantage/benefit (of) . . . is . . .
>   - . . . is useful/beneficial/important because . . .
>   - . . . is essential for . . .
> - a question before introducing an advantage
>   - Why is . . . useful/beneficial/important?
> - an explanation of what the advantage allows us to do or what it makes possible
>   - . . . allows/helps us/you (to) . . .
>   - . . . makes it possible to . . .

▼ Doing business across different cultures requires a high level of cultural competence.

> NOTE-TAKING SKILL Using Columns
> To organize two corresponding sets of information, you can use two columns. Write the main ideas in the left-hand column. Then add a column to the right for the supporting ideas or details that pertain to those main ideas. Using arrows or lines between the corresponding information can make it easier to see and remember the connections between the main ideas and the supporting details.

B 🎧 2.3 ▶ 1.8 Listen to the lecture and follow along with the notes in the first column.

Succeeding in Business

Competences		Advantages
Personal competence
1. understanding yourself	→	helps you use time and _____ correctly [1]

3. bridge building	→	allows creation of connections across cultrs

C 🎧 2.3 Listen again and complete the second column of notes in exercise B. Write no more than two words in each blank.

AFTER LISTENING

D Work with a partner. Discuss these questions.

1. Which of the competences that the lecturer spoke about is an area of strength for you? If possible, give an example.

2. Which of the competences would you like to develop? Explain.

A Speaking

SPEAKING SKILL Defining Terms

When giving a presentation, you may sometimes use terms that are related to a specific field. Your listeners may not be familiar with these terms, and their meaning may differ from the dictionary definitions. In these cases, you should define the terms using language that your audience will understand. Here are some expressions you can use:

> The term . . . refers to/means . . .   By . . ., I mean . . .
> This means . . .   . . . is defined as . . .

You can also define a term by simply pausing after the term and giving a definition.

A 🎧 2.4 Work with a partner. Take turns reading the sentences aloud using expressions from the skill box. Then listen and fill in the expressions the speaker uses.

1. _____ emotional intelligence, _____ understanding your own emotions and those of others.

2. _____ social competence _____ the skills required to engage with and get the best out of other people.

3. The third component of social competence is known as connective teaching. _____ being just as eager to learn from others as you are to pass on your knowledge to them.

4. Cultural competence _____ an understanding of cultural differences and how to make use of that knowledge.

B Match each term related to globalization on the left with its definition on the right.

1. _____ coca-colonization   a. the distance food is transported from producer to consumer

2. _____ postnationalism   b. the globalization of American culture through U.S. products

3. _____ food miles   c. inequality in access to computers and the Internet

4. _____ worldlang   d. an active user of social media and the Internet

5. _____ netizen   e. the process by which nations become global entities

6. _____ digital divide   f. a new language created from several modern languages

DEFINING TERMS C Work with a partner. Practice saying sentences to introduce and then define the terms in exercise B. Use expressions for defining terms from the Speaking Skill box.

> One aspect of globalization that isn't always welcome is coca-colonization. By coca-colonization, I mean the globalization of American culture through U.S. products.

D Work in a small group. Discuss the advantages and/or disadvantages of the six aspects of globalization. Take notes below. Write an advantage and disadvantage for each.
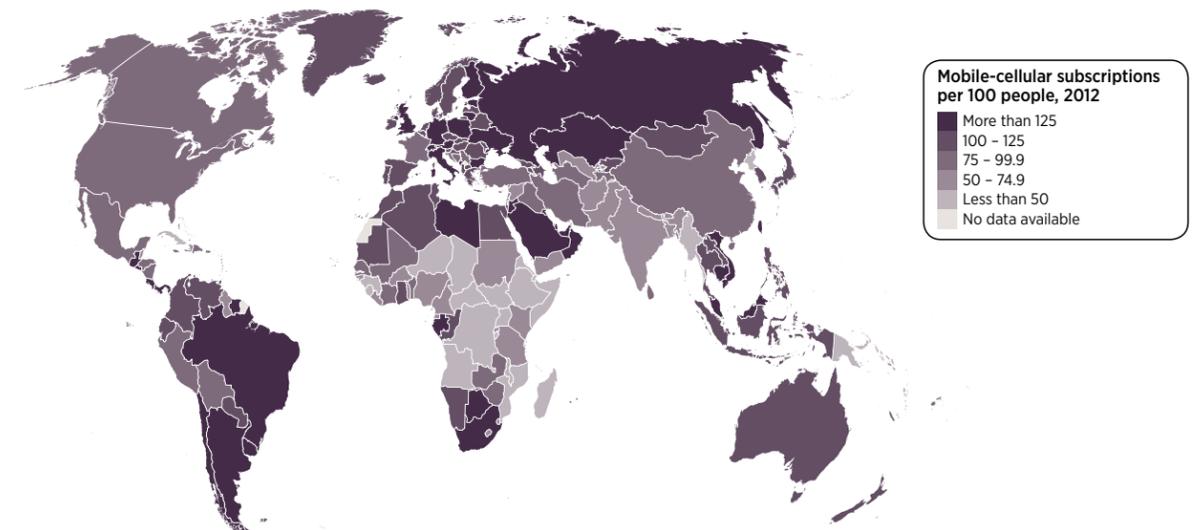

CRITICAL THINKING: EVALUATING

| Aspects of Globalization		Advantages	Disadvantages
1. coca-colonization	→	_____	_____
2. postnationalism	→	_____	_____
3. food miles	→	_____	_____
4. worldlang	→	_____	_____
5. netizen	→	_____	_____
6. digital divide	→	_____	_____

E Work with a partner. Compare the two maps. What conclusion(s) can you make about the relationship between mobile-cellular use and Internet access? Support your ideas with examples from the maps.

CRITICAL THINKING: INTERPRETING A MAP

Mobile-Cellular Use

Mobile-cellular subscriptions per 100 people, 2012

GRAMMAR FOR SPEAKING Gerund Phrases

A gerund phrase is a type of noun phrase. Gerund phrases begin with a gerund (the base form of a verb plus -ing) and include one or more modifiers and additional objects. They are used as the subject or subject complement of a sentence, object of a verb, or object of a preposition.

> Being realistic but at the same time optimistic allows us to stay positive— even when things go wrong.
> The first component of personal competence is understanding yourself.
> You should not avoid making difficult decisions.
> Social competence is essential for bringing together groups of talented people.

F Put the words and phrases in the correct order to create sentences with gerund phrases about career skills. More than one answer may be possible.

1. to think critically / is / for problem solving / being able / essential

2. are vital / accessing current information / Internet search skills / for

3. huge amounts of data / facilitate / analyzing / Big Data skills

4. a high level of / working with others successfully / emotional intelligence / requires

LESSON TASK Role-Playing a Job Interview

A Work with a partner. You are going to role-play a job interview. Look at the list of interview questions and add one more question about work experience.

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

1. Can you tell me a little about yourself?
2. What are your greatest strengths?
3. What is your greatest weakness?
4. Describe a stressful workplace situation you experienced. How did you handle it?
5. What is your approach to working successfully in a team?
6. This position requires working with people from different cultural backgrounds. What skills or qualifications do you have to work cross-culturally?
7. _____

B On your own, study the interview questions and prepare your answers. Make notes to use during the interview. Use any work, school, or life experience you've had, information from this lesson, and your imagination, as necessary.
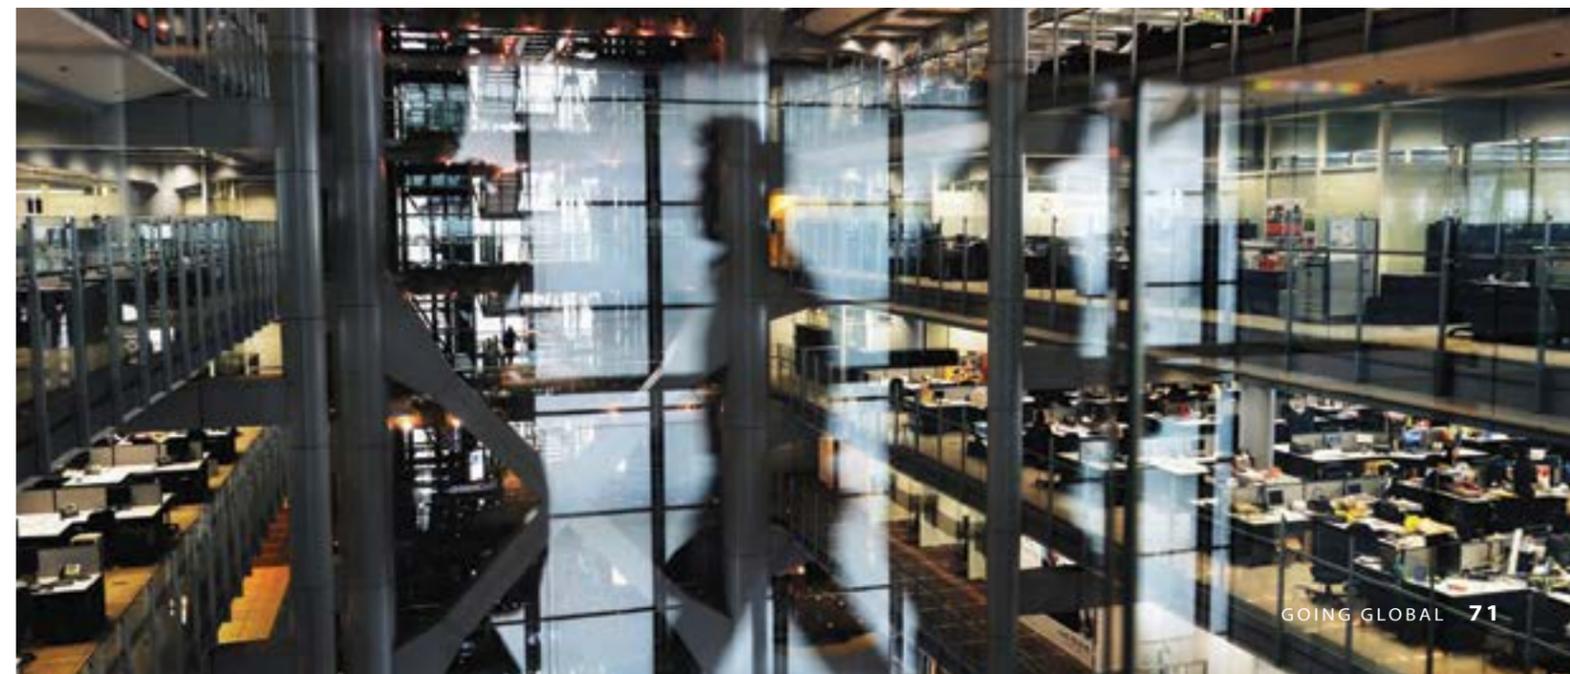

CRITICAL THINKING:
APPLYING

EVERYDAY LANGUAGE   Asking about Experiences

> Can you tell me about a time that/when you … ?
> Have you ever had the chance/opportunity to … ?
> Have you ever had any experience with … ?

C With your partner, role-play an interview between a hiring manager at an international company and an applicant. Ask the interview questions from exercise A, as well as any follow-up questions as appropriate. Use expressions from the Everyday Language box. Then switch roles and repeat.

augment (v): to make something larger, stronger, or more effective by adding to it

C 🎧 2.6 Complete the article with words from exercise A. Use the correct form of the words. Then listen and check your answers.

THE WORLD OF AUGMENTED REALITY

Revealed World

Augmented reality is one of the most promising and _____ global trends of recent years. This much-talked-about _____ technology is most often used to _____ the reality we see through a cell phone or other _____ device with fun or useful information, images, sounds, or videos. Some _____ of augmented reality that are already being widely used include apps that highlight and display information about restaurants, historic sites, museum exhibits, or where you parked your car. A variety of outdoor games use the technology to allow players to _____ as they hunt for digital objects. Among such games, Pokémon Go is the most _____ example; it has introduced augmented reality to a _____ audience. The augmented reality experience is also available through special eyewear or headsets, and soon even contact lenses. As we look toward the future, we _____ many more uses for this promising technology with _____ for nearly every aspect of life in the years to come.

Imagine bubbles floating before your eyes, filled with cool info about stuff you see on the street. Science fiction? Nope. It's augmented reality. And one day it'll be as routine as browsing the Web.

Listening — A Podcast about Augmented Reality

BEFORE LISTENING

A Work with a partner. Discuss these questions.

1. Where might you see an image like the one below?
2. What kinds of information are available in the image?

WHILE LISTENING

B 🎧 2.7 Listen to a podcast about augmented reality (AR). Check (✓) the two main ideas the speakers discuss.

1. ☐ AR is a useful technology with many different applications.
2. ☐ AR's popularity has contributed to the widespread use of portable devices.
3. ☐ AR is useful when deciding which pieces of furniture to purchase.
4. ☐ AR facilitates the globalization of culture through popular games.
5. ☐ Pokémon Go's popularity has unquestionably benefited local economies.

C 🎧 2.7 Listen again and complete the outline. Write no more than two words in each blank.

I. Intro to AR—an emerging trend in tech
  A. Combines info/images w/the _____ 1
  B. Later, AR will integrate sounds

II. AR has importnt implications for globalization of bus.
  A. Potential to enrich _____ 2
  B. Could imitate facial _____ 3 & glances

III. More ppl using AR → more affordable
  A. In industry, machines marked w/ _____ 4
  B. Shopping for furniture—see how looks in room

IV. Pokémon GO
  A. More _____ 5 than Facebook/Twitter in 1 yr
  B. How to play
    1. Look for animated _____ 6 (i.e., Pokémon)
    2. Goal: capture them in your _____ 7
  C. Reasons for success
    1. Pokémon was already a _____ 8 brand
    2. Ppl felt better walking around outside
    3. Chances for _____ 9 other ppl
  D. The business side
    1. Has pwr to make areas or _____ 10
    2. Hunters may want to buy snacks, drinks, etc.

AFTER LISTENING

D Work in a small group. Discuss these questions. Use your notes from exercise C to help you.

1. What is an application of AR that would improve your own life? Explain.
2. Some believe that games that are played worldwide, such as Pokémon GO, have contributed to the globalization of culture. Others see them as global fads that have no significant impact. What is your view?
3. What are some of the benefits of the globalization of culture? What are some of the drawbacks?

B Speaking

A 🎧 2.9 Underline the parenthetical expression in each sentence. Then listen and check your work. With a partner, practice saying these sentences, using correct intonation and pauses with the parentheticals.

1. That car service, though convenient and affordable, is taking jobs away from taxi drivers everywhere.
2. Pokémon GO is, at least for now, a wildly popular augmented reality game.
3. Wearable technology, despite all the advertising, hasn't had the mass appeal we'd anticipated.
4. Bollywood-style dance classes, believe it or not, are a growing trend in many places.
5. Digital art that is created for use on the Internet is sometimes, in my opinion, extremely stunning.
6. Robots and other machines, although they are undeniably useful, are causing some people to lose their jobs.
7. People born between 1982 and 2004, sometimes called "millennials," are skilled at using social media to collaborate.
8. The increase in injuries to teens, which few anticipated, is linked to the global extreme sports trend.

B Work with a partner. Make five statements about topics from popular culture (movies, TV, music, sports, fashion, technology, etc.) using the parenthetical expressions in the box below or ones of your own. Use correct intonation and pauses.

B: Oh, definitely. He was in the Iron Man movies, which I love, and in Spiderman.

I think you'll agree	though I've never tried it	believe it or not in my opinion	which I love	as far as I'm concerned

C Work in a small group. Read about four emerging global trends. Then discuss the benefits and drawbacks these trends could have on people, businesses, or organizations.

A: Synthetic food could inevitably save the lives of millions of animals.
B: That's true, but would it be healthy to eat? It could have some negative effects on people who eat it, couldn't it?

1. Synthetic food: Plant-based meat replacements and meat grown in laboratories without harming animals will be coming to grocery stores.
2. Virtual reality (VR): You will be able to watch live shows and concerts and feel as if you're actually there without leaving your living room.
3. Self-driving cars: Companies like Tesla and Uber are creating systems that will eliminate the need for drivers and reduce the number of road accidents.
4. Artificial art: Computers are already writing songs and will soon be creating movies, paintings, novels, and poetry.
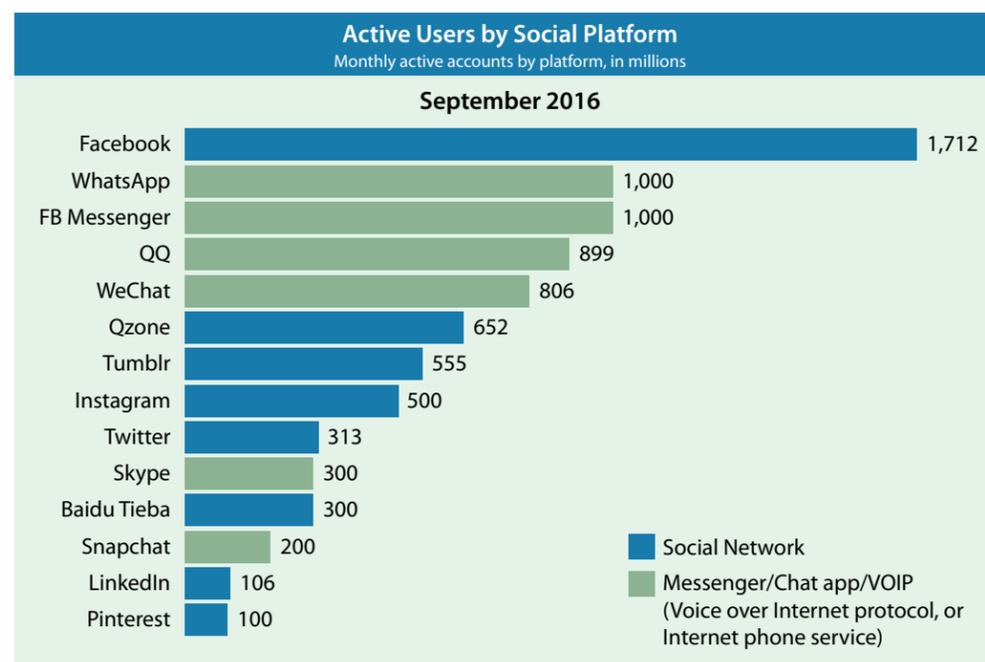

FINAL TASK Evaluating a Social Media Platform

> You are going to research a social media platform, evaluate its importance for globalization, and present your findings to your group.

A Work in a small group. Look at the bar graph and discuss these questions.

1. How are the social media platforms ranked in the chart?
2. What do the different bar colors represent?
3. Which of the platforms have you heard of? Which have you used?

PRESENTATION SKILL Managing Nervousness

It is normal to be a little nervous at the beginning of a presentation. Because the first impression you make on your audience is important, learn to manage any nervousness. First of all, remember to breathe and be as natural as you can. Make an effort to speak slowly and calmly. Memorizing the first few sentences you plan to say can sometimes help. Soon you will feel more comfortable and confident.
