

Unit 1

Unit Opener Extend Worksheet F.1.1

- 1 Work in pairs. Read and discuss.

Some families are big and others are small. Some families have different members, such as a stepfather or stepmother. Is your family big or small? What is different about your family?

- 2 What is important for family members? Check ✓ the three best answers.

- ☐ They spend time together.
- ☐ There's always a mother, a father, and many brothers and sisters.
- ☐ They're mean to other people in the family.
- ☐ They're good to other people in the family.
- ☐ They help at home.
- ☐ They're many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

- 3 Think about your family. Make a list of four people in your family. Say how each person is related to you (for example, father, sister). Then say what you like to do with each person.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

- 4 Write. In this unit, you'll learn about different families. Think of a family that is different from your own. Describe that family.
