Conversation 1

A: Good afternoon. Can I help you?

B: Yes, I'd like the salad bar and an iced tea.

A: Sweetened or unsweetened?

B: Unsweetened.

A: And you? What would you like?

C: And I'd like a ham and Swiss sandwich. Lettuce and tomato, no mayo.

A: What kind of bread: white, wheat or rye?

C: Wheat please.

A: And to drink?

C: A cup of coffee.

A: That's a salad bar and iced tea and a ham and Swiss on wheat, lettuce and tomato, no mayo, with coffee.

C: Yes, thank you.

It's early in the morning at Coffee to Go. Kate is working behind the counter. She's at the cash register. She's taking an order. She's tired because she's working overtime again.

Sherri is standing in front of the counter. She is buying some coffee. She is on her way to work.

Pete is another employee behind the counter. He's pouring a large coffee. Jess is standing behind Sherri. He always orders the same thing: a large coffee, and two donuts. He is giving his order to Kate, but Pete is already pouring Jess a large coffee. Jess comes to Coffee to Go every weekday before work. His office is across the street.

Standing at the table is Mr. Lopez. He's putting sugar in his coffee. He likes his coffee dark and sweet.

Sitting at a table are three regular customers; Mary, Vera, and Patricia. They are senior citizens and they visit Coffee to Go three times a week after they take a walk in the park. They like to have breakfast together after their walk. Mary is drinking a cup of tea and eating eggs and a bagel. Vera is eating two donuts and drinking some orange juice. Patricia is eating yogurt and fruit and is drinking a cup of decaf coffee. They're talking and enjoying their breakfast.

It's a good morning for them, but it's not a good morning for Scott. He is a hard worker but he was late again. Harry, his manager, is talking to him. Scott is wiping a table and listening to Harry. Harry is angry. He is telling Scott that he must not be late again. Harry is asking Scott to stay late today.

Sashi is a business woman. Every month she flies from India to New York. Last Monday, Sashi flew from Mumbai, India, to New York. It was a terrible flight.

Sashi's flight was at 9:00 in the evening. She got to the airport at 5:00 in the evening. The airport was very busy. She stood in the line for security for two hours. When she got to the gate, she learned that her flight was delayed. She was on flight 482 from Mumbai. The plane was scheduled to leave at 9:00 o'clock. But, the plane was six hours late. Finally, at 3:00 in the morning Sashi got on the plane.

The plane was very crowded. Her seat was in row 33, the last row, next to the bathrooms. There was a woman and her two children in the seats next to Sashi. The children were tired and noisy.

The flight from Mumbai to New York was 14 hours. For the first part of the flight, the weather was calm, but the weather over Europe was terrible. Some of the people on the plane were sick because of the turbulence.

Finally, the plane landed in New York. It was 5 o'clock in the morning. She went to get her bags, but where were they? They weren't in the baggage claim area. Sashi waited in line again. The agent told her that her bags were in Chicago not in New York. Sashi took a taxi to her hotel and went to sleep. Thankfully, her bags were at the hotel that evening.
